Heavy Vote Polled In Santa Ana And Newport At Noon

HOT ISSUES BRING OUT MANY VOTES

Outside Precincts Other Than City Not Up to That of Primary Vote

SLOW RETURN SEEN

Do Not Expect Official Returns to Arrive Much Before Nine o'Clock

SPURRED ON BY the spirited contest that has been made during the present campaign more than one-fourth of the vote in Santa Ana had been cast at 12:30 today. This is the largest percentage of the total registered vote that has been cast during the morning hours of election day for a good many years. It is revealed by a search of the records.

The total vote cast in 20 widely scattered precincts in Santa Ana was 1344 out of a registered vote of 5127. This figures out a little more than a 26 per cent.

Good weather and tense interest in the issues of the campaign combined to bring out the voters to express their convictions through the ballot box. The race for governor between Milton K. Young, running on a dry platform and James Rolph, reputed wet and liberal candidate, has aroused both sides and is bringing out the church vote, it is felt.

County contests in which there is great interest are those for the posts of sheriff and district attorney, in which the Law Enforcement League of Orange county has taken an active part supporting Logan Jackson for sheriff and Harry Westover for district attorney. They are opposed by Sam Jerrikan, present sheriff, and Sam Collins, deputy district attorney.

A light vote was being cast throughout Orange county this morning, with a heavy vote predicted for this afternoon. It was reported at noon. At noon a 35 per cent vote had been cast at Newport Beach, the center of the contest.

FLIER FORCED DOWN BY STORM IN DESERT

CASA GRANDE, Ariz., Nov. 4.—(UP)—Forced down by a desert thunderstorm, Stanley Boynton, 18-year-old Massachusetts flier, awaited clear weather today to continue his record attempting flight to the east coast.

Boynton left Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and, buffeted by head winds, was forced to descend at Yuma, Ariz., for fuel.

Continuing his journey toward Phoenix, he ran into a thunderstorm and was forced 40 miles off his course before landing here.

The young flier is attempting to set a new junior transcontinental record for a west to east flight.

Bishop's Son Sought On Check Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—(UP)—Major Richard M. Cannon, son of Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, was in trouble again today, on charge of issuing a bad check.

A warrant for his arrest, signed by Municipal Judge George J. Steiger, charged Major Cannon with cashing a check for $56.25 at the Sir Francis Drake hotel here that was later returned marked "no funds." Another check drawn for $50 was not mentioned in the complaint.

Major Cannon stopped at the hotel September 27. His whereabouts at present was unknown.

MARY GARDEN VICTOR OVER TEXAS EDITOR

Gene Howe, About Faces and Pays High Tribute to Operatic Star

AMARILLO, Tex., Nov. 4.—(UP)—The triumph of the "weaker" sex over the nation's male writers is complete—H. L. Menck-en is married and Gene Howe has publicly stated he thinks Mary Garden is "the most colorful personality on the stage today."

A year ago Editor Howe attracted national attention by stating in his newspaper column, "The Tactless Texan," that Miss Garden, who had appeared here in "Thais," was "so old she tottered" and making other disparaging remarks about her and her voice.

The newspaper comment was a challenge to Miss Garden. She accepted it. The battle was on. Miss Garden won. Howe admits it.

Miss Garden had "the last word" last night after appearing here again in "Thais." She had promised Howe, at a tea which he gave for her that she would "rip his hide off" and the editor sat stiffly throughout the performance, waiting for the ripping to start.

But Miss Garden disappointed (?) him. It amounted almost to a snubbing. She didn't even mention his name, except when he sent her "the biggest bouquet ever assembled" between acts. Then she just thanked him. That was all.

After the show, however, it was different.

"I've just discovered," she said, smiling, "that Mr. Howe uses much of the space in his column and devotes most of his time in locating lost dogs for Amarillo boys."

"If he dares criticize me again, I'll tell the world that as a music critic, Gene Howe is a good dog catcher."

So Howe went back to his office, forgot about Miss Garden's replying that she would be delighted "to attend tea" when he sent her an invitation to "supper," forgot she had said she would "rip his hide off," remembered the remark about the dog catcher and wrote a column calling her the "most colorful personality on the stage today."

DENSE FOG FORCES MAIL PLANES DOWN

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—(UP)—Dense fog blanketed portions of five mid-west states today. Mail planes were grounded and trains were running behind schedule.

The fog area, according to the weather bureau, extended from Cleveland, O., on the east over Indiana and Illinois to Iowa City, Ia., on the west, and from Southern Illinois north to Madison, Wis.

Motor traffic in Chicago crept along at a snail's pace in semi-darkness of fog and smoke that limited visibility to only a few feet.

Mail planes headed into the fog area were forced down, a ship from Dallas, Tex., landing at Iowa City and one from Cleveland halting at Toledo.

ORANGE COUNTY FRUIT GROUP GETS $15,000,000 FOR YEAR

INITIAL STEPS TO FIND JOBS TAKEN MONDAY

"Give a Man a Job" Committee Holds Meeting In Santa Ana

GIVE WORK to every Orange county resident who needs employment is the objective of Orange county's "give a man a job" committee, which held its first meeting at Ketter's cafe here yesterday.

The committee consists of W. J. Tway, Santa Ana lumber man, chairman; Harry M. May, secretary of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce, and G. C. Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor chamber. They were named at a meeting last week attended by newspaper editors, chamber executives and representative business men of the county.

Although Orange county is in a better position than most parts of the country, it is the desire of the committee and those they represent that this county remain a "white spot." They believe the best and fairest way to do this is to bring the man who needs a job to any job that now exists or which may be created, and to do everything reasonably possible in creating jobs, but not to encourage in any way—in fact to discourage—unemployed from outside the county coming here at the present time.

Methods Discussed

Speeding up the start of construction on needed county roads, on other county work, on civic projects in the various cities of the county and on certain private enterprises which will employ Orange county residents is one method stressed at yesterday's meeting for relieving unemployment and at the same time carrying on work which will be of great benefit to the county and its various parts.

Another avenue of unemployment, which it is believed could take care of a large number of men, temporarily, and which would also result beneficially to all concerned is modernization, remodeling and repairing of buildings of all

NEWARK GANGSTER SLAIN IN HOSPITAL

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—(UP)—John Passelli, 25, known to the Newark underworld as "The Ape," was shot to death last night in his private room at Newark General hospital, where he had sought refuge from enemies he knew had marked him for execution.

Two men, Passelli apparently trusted, walked into the hospital and straight to his room. They fired two shots. Then, while attendants rushed about in confusion seeking to learn the source of the shots, they walked out again, got in an automobile they had left outside, and drove away.

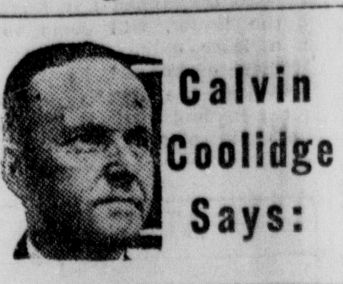

Discover Body Of Boy Hanging from Tree Near Home

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 4.—The body of Aiden Ladd, 13-year-old National City high school youth, was found hanging from the limb of a tree near his home early today.

Parents and neighbors were unable to throw any light on the case for police and coroner's investigators who were called to the scene.

Aiden, it was learned, told his smaller brother last night he was going to "get up early and play some Halloween pranks."

He was in good health and apparently happy, his parents said.

Calvin Coolidge Says:

By CALVIN COOLIDGE
Former President of United States

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Nov. 4.—The November elections held in the even years afford the only direct, formal and legal method for the regular nation-wide expression of the sovereignty of the people.

These days are a test of self-government. Their results do not give us absolute perfection and security but they do give us the safest and best government that it has ever been possible for a great nation to provide.

We need to exert ourselves to live up to the ideal of a sovereign, self-governing people. We need to think for ourselves. That means voting our convictions. We need to go to the polls without having to be dragged by a ward committee.

By this time all voters should know what candidates they want to support. Plans should be made to vote as early as possible. Everything else is subordinate on election day.

There is nothing new or complicated about the duty of the voter. Everyone can understand it. The cheapest and best way is to meet it. The cost to the people of enfranchised indifference is one of our heaviest taxes. The public welfare requires but a little thought and time of the average citizen.

ARMISTICE DAY IS PROCLAIMED BY PRESIDENT

Nation's Chief Executive
Decrees Display of Flags on Buildings

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(UP)—President Hoover today proclaimed November 11 as Armistice day, commemorating the ending of the World War Nov. 11, 1918. The proclamation invites observance of the anniversary in churches, schools and other suitable places and decrees the display of flags upon all government buildings.

The text of the proclamation follows:

"Whereas, the 11th day of November, 1918, is forever memorable as the day upon which ended the world war, with its attendant suffering and vast wastage of human life, and

"Whereas, it is fitting that the anniversary of this day should be commemorated by exercises which

MRS. MCPHERSON ON WAY TO LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—(UP)—Alma Temple McPherson, who has been in the east attempting to recover from her recent serious illness, is enroute here by boat, it was said at Angelus temple today.

Attendees at the temple said they understood Mrs. McPherson was somewhere in the Panama Canal zone at the present time and that she will arrive here about November 20.

Miss Harriet Jordan, one of Mrs. McPherson's secretaries, said that she was unable to say what boat Mrs. McPherson was on or from where she embarked.

GLASS PLANT WORK STARTS NEXT MONDAY

Preliminary Tests on Piling Requirements Are Underway Today

OFFICIAL TESTS in connection with determining piling requirements necessary for the foundations of equipment of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company Santa Ana plant will be started Monday at the plant site, lying northwest of the intersection of Bristol and Fairview streets in the southwest part of the city, it was announced today by O. C. Struthers, of Los Angeles, Pacific Coast manager of the Raymond Concrete Pile company. Preliminary work is well under way and preliminary tests will be made this week, Struthers stated.

The official tests are to be made in the presence of Lockwood J. Towne, of Boston, chief structural engineer for the Stone and Webster Engineering corporation, of Boston, the firm that is to supervise the construction of the great $5,000,000 Pacific coast plant which is located in Santa Ana. Towne is reported to be flying to the Pacific coast to observe the test work that is now being started by the Raymond company.

George Raymer, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, announced today that Towne was due to arrive Friday Santa Ana. It is anticipated that he will make additional plans for construction in addition to checking up the pile tests while he is on the ground. Towne is now supervising construction work costing $38,000,000 that is in course of construction. He spent several days in Long Beach some time ago as the work for the new Proctor and Gamble plant there was inaugurated.

The specifications for the preliminary work now being undertaken on the 80-acre site in the southwest part of the city, call for making 24 test piles at certain locations throughout the tract. This work, according to Struthers, is for the purpose of determining resistance of the ground and the design required for sustaining certain weights. This work will determine actual plans for the foundation of the plant and will give engineers specifications for use in preparing the plans for the foundation.

The process used by the Raymond Concrete Pile company is a patented process and consists of driving a mandril inside a casing, then pulling the mandril and filling the casing with concrete. Between two and three weeks will be required for the preliminary tests, Struthers stated today.

The actual construction work is expected to start soon after the first of the year on the plant, which is to be one of the finest of the kind on the coast.

A dinner honoring Towne, the engineering representative of the Stone and Webster company, is to be given by the chamber of commerce while Towne is here, Raymer stated today.

Record Set And July Is Best Month

During Season 5520 Cars Shipped—4170 Cars of Valencias In List

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Returns for the year to the Orange County Fruit Exchange totaled $15,313,633.36, according to a statement made by C. C. Hillis, exchange manager. These returns include $350,000 of the crop shipped after November 1, 1929. This total is said to set a new record for exchange receipts.

July marked the largest sales month with returns at $2,690,545.14 and August as the next highest with sales at $2,471,196.74.

During the season 5520 cars were shipped and of these 4170 were valencias and the rest lemons and other varieties of citrus fruit.

The crop was considerably in excess of that of 1929 in monetary value but fell short in quantity of fruit, as during 1929 the remarkable crop of small sizes totaled 7884 cars, the largest number of cars ever shipped through the exchange.

Good marketing conditions are responsible for the excellent returns to growers this year, it is said.

TOM MIX TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 4.—(UP)—The nature of his ailments still undetermined, but his condition slightly improved, Tom Mix, cowboy screen actor, today was in the Hollywood hospital.

Mix became ill Friday night of an ailment believed to have been caused by one of his many accidental falls during his film career.

Dr. R. Nichol Smith, Mix's physician, said the actor was suffering severe pains in the chest and back. He planned to take X-ray photographs today to determine the nature of the ailment.

Mix recently returned to Hollywood after a tour with a circus.

QUIET EVENING IS PLANNED BY HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(UP)—The excitement and bustling activity of watching and discussing election returns through the night will be missing at the White House tonight, for President Hoover has decided not to wait up for the results of the voting to determine control of the next Congress.

A quiet evening at home was planned by the President and Mrs. Hoover. A few friends may drop in. Radio returns will be heard. No particular guests have been invited and Mr. Hoover plans to retire at his usual bedtime, about 10 p. m.

Register Election Service

The Register tonight will provide national, state and county election returns through a public address system on top of the newspaper building, and by megaphone, while KREG will put the returns on the air, thus giving the public a complete "coverage" on the latest figures. Returns will be announced at the Fox theaters also.

First returns are expected to come shortly after 7 p. m., when the United Press wire will open, and from then till midnight figures will be announced.

The broadcast over KREG will be sponsored by Norman Sprowl, manager of the Fox theaters here, and by the Foster-Barker Music company.

The Register will dispatch a staff of reporters throughout the city and they, with its correspondents covering the entire county, will phone in late figures as they are tallied.

Butler Leads Opponent In Senate Race

NEW ASHFORD, Mass., Nov. 4.—(UP)—William M. Butler, Republican candidate for United States senator, received 29 votes to four for Marcus A. Coolidge, his Democratic opponent, in this little Berkshire hill village, first town in today's election.

In the 1926 election, in which Butler was defeated by David I. Walsh, Democrat, the Republican candidate received 14 votes to 8 for Walsh.

Increased anti-prohibition sentiment also was registered in this normally bone dry town.

BOURBONS HOPE TO GAIN LEAD OVER COUNTRY

Prohibition to Have Great Bearing on Voting in All of Nation

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(UP)—Millions of American citizens are voting today in an election that is watched primarily as a mandate on the administration of President Hoover and for a notable change in sentiment on prohibition.

While "off year" elections such as the one today usually cut down the majorities in congress of the party in power, a change in the control of congress, for which Democrats have worked earnestly, or even a decided shift, would be regarded as an unfavorable omen by Republican leaders.

Members of the house are being elected today in 47 states, Maine having held its election in September. A total of 431 house members are being chosen. Maine elected four. Thirty-four senators are being elected in 33 states. There are gubernatorial elections in 32 states.

Beyond the major immediate consideration, involving the country's reaction to President Hoover's handling of such issues as the tariff, farm relief, the business depression and the like, and the public interest in the prohibition controversy, the congressional and state elections today run off into numerous other currents.

They may have an important bearing on the political future of President Hoover and on the presidential hopes of other outstanding figures, notably Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, Robert J. La Follette of Ohio, Dwight W. Morrow of New Jersey and Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

Running in and out of congressional and state contests throughout the country is the prohibition issue, and this seems to overshadow most others in public interest, even though the business depression is expected to affect many voters.

Wets do not expect to get a majority in congress, which appears practically impossible, but

50 RESCUED FROM BURNING BUILDING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—(UP)—More than 50 Chinamen, many of them children, were rescued early today from a fire that for a time threatened the entire San Francisco Chinese quarter.

Thousands of dollars worth of tapestries and Oriental works of art were destroyed.

The blaze started in a large art store owned by S. Pakazawa and quickly spread to adjoining buildings on the same street, partially destroying a Chinese apartment house, occupied by 100 sleeping Chinese.

Many of the residents were too old or too young to escape by themselves. Policeman Carl Carison, attached to Chinatown squad, was credited with saving 15 persons before he succumbed to the dense smoke.

GIRL PASSES AWAY LATER AT HOSPITAL

Hazel Bouchet Sends Flowers to Kuykendall Funeral and Then Suicides

Note Indicates Couple Had Reached Agreement Not To Live Without Other

LOVE SO STRONG that she refused to allow even his death to separate her from the man she adored, early today prompted beautiful Hazel Bouchet, 17, to swallow poison while she sat alone with the body of Richard Kuykendall, 24, in a private room at the Harrell and Brown funeral parlors at 116 West Seventeenth street.

The girl died a few minutes later at the Santa Ana Valley hospital, without regaining consciousness. Then her body was taken back to the funeral parlors where it was placed in a room adjoining that of the man's.

The girl went to the funeral parlors yesterday with members of the family of Kuykendall, and then is said to have threatened to commit suicide. She lived at 615 North Van Ness street, in a small apartment. She had been a resident of Santa Ana for the past five months.

Kuykendall was married, but he and his wife had been separated for some time, it was reported. The wife resides in Hollywood. His address also was given as 615 North Van Ness street.

The girl came to the business section of the city early today, hired a taxi at the Owl Taxi company, and after being driven by a florist shop here where she ordered flowers sent out to the funeral home for Kuykendall, ordered the driver to take her there.

Views Lover's Body

Going into the funeral home, she was met by Harold Brown, one of the proprietors to whom she said "I want to see Dick." Having been there yesterday with members of the family, Brown immediately took her to the private room in which the body of Kuykendall lay, in a little cove, by a big window. Believing the girl wanted to be alone with the body, Brown slipped quietly out and closed the door.

He returned to his office at the front of the building. Then he heard a scream. He rushed back to the room. He found the girl slitting in a chair, in front of the body.

"I've just taken strychnine," she said calmly, holding up an almost empty bottle. Brown rushed to her, took the bottle out of her

L. A. GROUP LEAVES ON TRIP TO MEXICO

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—(UP)—A party of 161 Los Angeles business men and women will leave here this afternoon over the Southern Pacific on a three weeks tour of Mexico under the direction of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. It is the sixth excursion sponsored by that organization for the purpose of establishing trade and business contacts.

The first stop in Mexico will be made at Hermosillo, Son., tomorrow afternoon. Sixteen other cities will be visited, including two days at Guadalajara and six days in Mexico City.

BANK BANDIT KILLED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—(UP)—A warning to bank bandits to heed the consequences of their acts was issued by police today following the fatal shooting of John Steindl, 43, by detectives as he fled from a Bank of Italy branch here yesterday with $258 in loot.

Detectives Jack Malina and A. M. Woolman had noted a man surveying the bank on the previous night, and stationed themselves nearby as the bank opened in the morning. Steindl, they said, was attempting to shoot at them when they fired.

HEAVY BALLOT BEING POLLED IN SANTA ANA

for the supervisory seat that went over to the general election.

At San Juan Capistrano, 114 votes had been cast out of a registration of 600. Seventeen automobiles had been secured to carry citizens to the polls.

Fullerton reported a small vote this morning with citizens expected to go to the polls in large numbers this afternoon.

Huntington Beach anticipated a heavy vote this afternoon, with very few votes cast this morning.

Sixty citizens of Olive cast their ballots early this morning. Three hundred and seventy-five are registered in Olive.

Returns are expected to be slow coming in tonight on account of the heavy vote, which it is felt will follow the lead of the morning vote, and also due to the number of constitutional propositions that are to be checked. There are 26 state measures and two county propositions on the ballot.

County Clerk J. M. Backs stated that he did not expect official returns to start coming into his office until after nine o'clock and expected the force of checkers to be at work until Wednesday morning.

There are 189 precincts in the county and a force of over 1100 persons is at work in the polling places receiving the ballots from the citizens and making preparations to check the count when the polls close at seven o'clock tonight.

Voting at the city of Orange precincts at noon today was reported considerably under that registered by noon during the August primaries. Voting was fairly heavy but the biggest vote was not expected until late this afternoon.

Polling places in Santa Ana that were checked at noon, together with the vote cast at that time and the total registered for that precinct were as follows: No. 1—Fire station, North Sycamore street, 60-175; No. 2—Willard school, 100-288; No. 4—Buick garage, 67-192; No. 6—Spurgeon school, 65-259; No. 7—Lathrop school, 87-328; No. 11—Dunlap garage, North Main street, 91-223; No. 13—Lincoln school, 68-287; No. 17—Muir school, 52-213; No. 18—city hall, 32-142; No. 20—Roosevelt school, 61-235; No. 27—Johnson garage, Kilson drive, 63-335; No. 33—high school, 64-224; No. 35—city water works, 64-270; No. 36—Legion hall, 48-216; No. 38—McKinley school, 53-268; No. 40—Lowell school, 42-148; No. 44—Franklin school, 56-186; No. 50—Jefferson school, 78-348; No. 54—Millen garage, Santa Clara avenue, 117-277.

BLUE RIBBON GIRL

Her rivals probably hadn't a leg to stand on and were willing to admit defeat when smiling Frauline Ruth Kathrin ankled into a beauty contest in Berlin the other day. A jury of artists adjudged her to be the "world's loveliest legs," and here you see her holding up the blue ribbon they awarded her. She's a dancer—and no wonder!

hand. He noticed the label on the bottle was marked "chloroform."

"That's chloroform," Brown stated. "You didn't drink that, did you?" he asked.

"Yes, I did," she replied. "Then I had better get a doctor," Brown said, starting for the door.

"No, don't do it. I want to die. We had agreed to follow each other in case either of us died first," the girl said.

Brown rushed down the hallway, and the girl yelled after him, "Well, get Dr. Wade."

Brown immediately called Dr. Wade, then hurried back to the room. When he saw her again, she was lying next to the body, her face close to Kuykendall's and as Brown entered the room, she held up another bottle and declared: "This is strychnine. I got it for the gophers," and with that she turned the bottle to her lips.

Brown said he attempted to knock the bottle from her hands, but before he could reach her, she had gulped down the poison which within a few moments was to take her life and allow her to join her lover. As she drained the bottle, she fell across Kuykendall's body.

Still conscious and still calm, the girl laid her head closer to that of Kuykendall's, and said: "Here is where I want to die."

Brown then ran for assistance. He found his partner, S. L. Harrell, who arrived about the same time with Dr. Wade. The physician, after a hurried examination, merely shook his head. There was nothing he could do. The funeral parlor ambulance was called and the girl was rushed to the hospital, where several other physicians said there was nothing that could be done. She died within a few minutes.

On the floor of the little private room where Miss Bouchet drank the poison was found a note, written on the face of a blue blank envelope. The note was probably written some time last night. In full, it read:

Letter Is Left

"Dearest Honey Boy: My twenty-four hours are one-half gone but I won't break my promise to you. So wait."

"If you must get there before I do, I'll be with you tonight, Darling. Together again tonight. Be happy, for I am happy."

"I'll be seeing you pretty soon. Always the same."

"P. S.—Don't be impatient for I can't get on a minute alone."

"Love."

The note was unsigned. One paragraph in it indicated that the two had at some time agreed not to live without the other, for the girl had written: "I won't break my promise to you, so wait."

The girl's purse and several papers were found on the floor of the room. There were $13 in bills in her purse. In her coat pocket was found 5 cents in change.

Coroner Charles D. Brown was notified of the tragedy and has taken charge of the case. He said that he did not know when an inquest would be held, probably late this afternoon.

A letter found by authorities in the girl's apartment indicated that her mother lived in Loveland, Colo., and that she had been out here only a few months.

Young Kuykendall, also known as Dick Kendall, also known as the Hecker Auto Laundry at Seventeenth and Main streets. He was killed early Sunday morning south of San Clemente, when the car in which he was riding with Hecker crashed into the rear of a truck parked at the side of the road, when Hecker, the driver, is said to have fallen asleep at the wheel.

Funeral services for Kuykendall were scheduled to be held at the Harrell and Brown funeral parlors tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, with burial in Fairhaven cemetery.

kinds, chiefly residences, as well as new construction.

Free employment bureaus in cities where none exist; buying supplies, both by public bodies and private firms and citizens wherever feasible, within the county; asking large employers to assure their employees of ordinary stability of jobs, and arranging for the co-operation of newspapers and other agencies in bringing work and needy Orange county residents together, are some of the lines of action discussed at the first meeting.

Plenty of Money

It was pointed out that a dollar will now go farther, either in purchase of nearly every kind of merchandise or in building or development than at any time in years, that the banks have more idle money than probably at any time in their history and that there is really an economic need for many projects now more or less hanging fire.

The committee decided to hold its next meeting Friday noon at Newport Beach. Meanwhile its members will confer with civic and industrial leaders to advance their program.

Have you any suggestions whereby work may be created or maintained for Orange county residents who really need employment?

Perhaps you have some idea which has not already come to the attention of Orange county's new "give-a-man-a-job" committee.

Phone or write any such suggestions to W. J. Tway, Santa Ana Lumber company, Santa Ana; H. M. May, Chamber of Commerce, Fullerton; or to G. C. Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor chamber, Balboa.

DRAWS 300 DAYS ON LIQUOR COUNT

Sentenced by Judge John Landell to pay $300 fine or spend 300 days in jail, Eliseo Lopez, convicted of making bootleg whiskey, was brought to the jail here today from San Juan Capistrano.

The arrest of Lopez followed a family row in which his sister, Amelia, his new wife figured. Two weeks ago Amelia eloped and married. She returned with her new husband and demanded her clothes, which Lopez and his wife refused to give up.

Al Jimenez, constable, was called in and in company with the officer, the bride and groom went to the Lopez home. When Constable Jimenez stated his errand, the door was shut in his face and finding he could do nothing with Mr. and Mrs. Lopez, as far as getting the clothes claimed by Amelia, the constable called in the services of Judge Landell and State Traffic Officer Joe Clever.

A search warrant was issued and the two officers, with the bride and groom made a trip to the Lopez home. While Amelia was gathering up her belongings, Constable Jimenez and Officer Clever looked around, to such good effect that they spotted a 16-gallon jug of mash on the kitchen stove. Beneath a trapdoor they found 96 bottles of moonshine. Judge Landell sentenced Lopez Monday. The woman, who disclaimed any knowledge of the liquor, will come to trial at a later date.

When questioned by the judge regarding the liquor, Lopez asserted he had made it to celebrate the christening of his son.

IMPROVEMENTS PROJECTED BY CITY COUNCIL

PLACENTIA, Nov. 4. — Plans and specifications for sidewalks of the new improvement district at Placentia were presented by City Engineer George Bates at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening and were approved by that body. At the same time a resolution of intention to form a street acquisition and improvement district was adopted, applying to the G. Wents property along North Bradford avenue.

The hearing was set for December 1 and if a quit claim deed is obtained from Wents before this date the acquisition proceedings will be stopped and the whole proceedings will go ahead under the street improvement act of 1911. The property consists of 813 feet on the east side of Bradford avenue from Chapman north to the school property and one block on the south side of Chapman from Bradford westward. Of the two property owners along this block, the American States Water company is ready to deed its strip to the city and Engineer Bates planned to go before the Round Table club at the Wednesday meeting and obtain signatures to a deed. Bonds will be issued to cover the cost of the sidewalk, with the rate paid for the bonds set at 7 per cent per annum.

The council introduced the opening of Melrose street between Primrose and Orangethorpe avenues to accommodate people who might wish to use the street but as it was agreed that if the street were opened the city would have to take care of it, the matter was tabled by a unanimous vote.

Reports of the treasurer and judge were read and accepted.

the judge's report showing $30 in fines collected. Arrangements were made to zone the city for the collection of tin cans and rubbish, which will be collected by the assistant to the street superintendent.

RAIL LINE PERMIT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The Western Pacific railroad applied to the interstate commerce commission today for authority to issue $5,000,000 of five per cent gold debentures, proceeds of which would be used in financing its new northern California extension from Kettle to Bieber.

The extension is being built in conjunction with the Great Northern railway, which is continuing the line from Bieber to Klamath Falls, Ore.

Campbell Urges Battery Tested Before Winter

To make sure that the automobile battery is in condition to furnish the additional power needed for winter driving, an inspection of that power unit at this season of the year is advised, according to Jack Campbell, local manager of the Western Auto Supply company.

"Winter weather with cold mornings and stiff motors bring added strain to the battery," says Campbell. "With the shorter days and longer nights, the battery is called on for more strenuous service than during the summer months."

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT
Are you perplexed regarding whether or not you love God? If you have not understood the absence of any emotion such as you feel toward those human persons who are dear to you.
The Master clearly explained—"He that keepeth commandments loveth Me." So long as you are trying, honestly trying, to do what you believe to be in accord with the will of a loving God, and because He asks it, you need not question the reality of your devotion to Him. It is never as difficult as it is just now for you to think more of others' needs than of your own. But your attempting to do it is sure proof of your love of God.

INQUEST HELD OVER BODY OF A. H. LYONS, JR.

Melvin H. Stark, of Beverly Hills, driver of the car which crashed on Mountain View avenue, San Bernardino Sunday afternoon, causing the deaths of Arthur H. Lyons Jr., Santa Ana youth, and Myrtle McDermott, a girl friend, who lived in Beverly Hills, was exonerated yesterday afternoon by a coroner's jury in an inquest held over the bodies of Lyons and Miss McDermott at a San Bernardino funeral parlor.

Stark together with three other members of the party in the car at the time of the accident, Miss Leonora Van Dremmer, of Santa Ana, Charles Reed, of Santa Ana, and Miss Iris Ford, of Los Angeles, all testified about the accident, which they said was caused when the car, skidding 35 or 40 miles an hour, skidded on the street car tracks, causing the machine to turn over.

A state traffic officer, Ben Coleman, testified that after an investigation he was of the opinion that Stark did everything he could to hold the car in the road. Chief Deputy District Attorney C. O. Thompson, of San Bernardino county, who conducted questioning at the inquest, announced yesterday that no charge would be filed against Stark. The jurors' verdict held that death to Lyons and Miss McDermott was caused by "injuries received in an automobile accident when the car in which they were riding crashed into a telephone pole near Mountain View avenue and Thirty-eighth street." The verdict also asserted that Stark was blameless.

The body of young Lyons, son of A. H. Lyons, of 2025 North Broadway, was returned here last night to the Winbiger Funeral home, where services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Harry E. Owens, pastor of the First Baptist church here, officiating. Burial will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

BOURBONS HOPE TO GAIN LEAD OVER COUNTRY

they count on the psychological effect of gains they hope to make, figuring a strong trend toward their side would swing over many half-hearted prohibitionists.

They have concentrated their attention on many congressional districts where the issue is doubtful, on referendums in four states, Massachusetts, Illinois, Rhode Island and Wyoming, and on senatorial elections where victory would command attention such as the election of J. Hamilton Lewis, Democratic wet, who is running against Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick in Illinois; Bulkeley, who is running against the Republican incumbent; Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch in Ohio, an ardent dry; John Albert Galen, Republican wet, who is seeking to unseat the veteran Democratic senator Thomas J. Walsh in Montana, and Marcus A. Coolidge, wet Democrat, who is opposing William M. Butler, Republican dry, in Massachusetts.

Democratic hopes were high today. The party faced a tremendous task in the election of a Democratic congress, but they were optimistic of the work of their new political machine which they built upon the wreckage of 1928.

President Hoover and Republican leaders looked with some satisfaction at the minorities which they rolled up in congress in 1928, which gives the Democrats a good deal to whittle down.

Democrats would have to elect 137 candidates in addition to the 81 who are unopposed, or win control of the house of representatives. This would necessitate victories in what are considered strong Republican districts. In the senate, they would have to elect 18 in 34 contests to gain numerical control, while the Republicans have to elect only 13. A house majority is 218, a senate majority 49.

DEPUTY ATTORNEY, WIFE UNDER ARREST

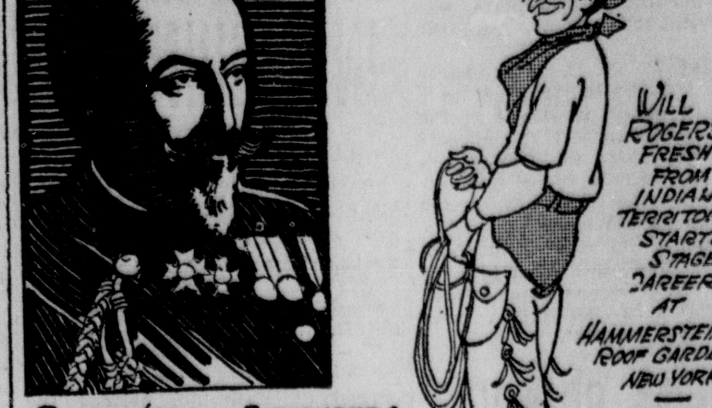

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 4.—(UP)—A wild early morning dash through the streets of Pasadena led to the arrest today of Royal Wilke, deputy city attorney of Los Angeles, and his wife, Mary, on charges of intoxication, drunk driving and possession of liquor, police reported.

Wilke assertedly was speeding 50 miles an hour on South Fair Oaks avenue when officers overtook him and forced his automobile into the curb.

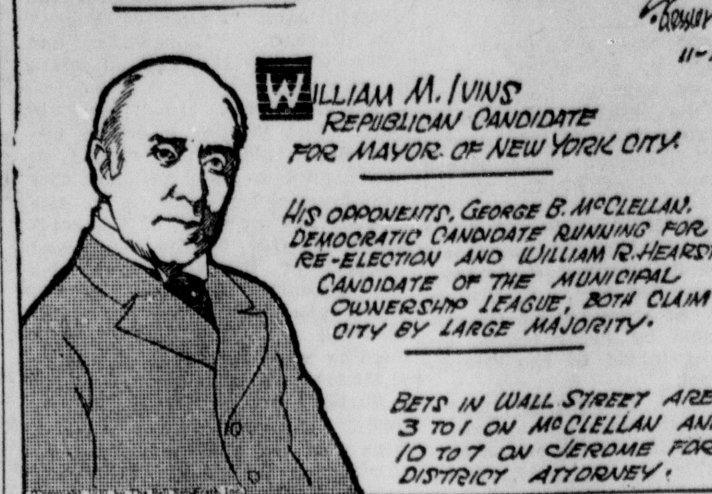

"The police took Wilke from the car to drive him to the station. Mrs. Wilke then drove the Wilke machine in reckless manner to the station, it was charged."

CABARET DADDY GLAD CHILD IS HUSKY LAD NOW

PARIS, Nov. 4.—A. M. Nelson Fysher, the daddy of the cabaret, is proud of his child! As the originator of the first cabaret in the world he ranks as a trail-blazer in the forest of night life.

As a writer of songs he conceived the idea that he might sing them himself with the exact feeling he had written into them. People came to hear him. That was back in the good old days of about 1896, and on Broadway. It was the world's first cabaret.

So he opened up the "Chez Fysher" and took on talent that he co-starred with him. It was an immediate success.

Practically all of the famous cabaret artists today have had at one time worked under his direction. Among them are Irene Bordoni, the late Rudolph Valentino and countless others. During Irene's visit to Paris this summer she went to see her former benefactor and they had a good laugh over the days when he started her to work for him at $50 a week.

Fysher has traveled all over the world. The crowned heads of Europe have been entertained at "Chez Fysher" innumerable times and the Prince of Wales was a guest no later than September at Fysher's new cabaret on the Rue Fontaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Ross moved Tuesday to their newly completed home in Sunnyside Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Trudeau spent Sunday in Los Angeles, where they were the guests of Mrs. Trudeau's mother and sister.

Mrs. M. Shiffer, who has been quite ill ever since her return from an extended visit in Ntah, is able to be about her home again.

CITRUS SCHOOL OPENED TODAY AT RIVERSIDE

Starting at 9:30 a. m. today in the Riverside Junior college, the extension school in citriculture opened with an address by M. M. Winslow, farm advisor of Riverside county, on the citrus industry of that county. At 10:30 a. m. Warren Schoonover, extension specialist in citriculture, outlined essentials to success in citrus production. In the afternoon Professors Brown and Beckett told the methods of irrigation and the use of water by trees.

Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. the school will be opened with an address by Dr. W. W. Robbins, professor of Botany at Davis, on "How the Citrus Tree Grows." The remainder of the day will be spent in considering various soil and cover crop problems under the direction of Dr. L. D. Batchelor and Schoonover.

Dr. H. R. Wellman will open the school at 9:30 a. m. Thursday with an outline of the world's citrus industry and the California citrus outlook. This material will be especially valuable to those who are intending to extend their present citrus acreage. The remainder of the morning will be devoted to economic aspects of the citrus industry affecting the grower, under the direction of L. W. Fluharty. The afternoon will be devoted to citrus fertilization problems, led by Schoonover.

The Friday program will open with a discussion of packing and marketing problems, by H. J. Ramsey. The problems of tillage, disease control, and pest control will be outlined by Drs. H. S. Fawcett, H. J. Quayle, and Schoonover.

On Saturday the test plots of the citrus experiment station will be visited, starting at 9:00 a. m.

Orange county growers are invited to attend this school, the only one to be given in Southern California this year.

REINDEER MAY GIVE ALASKA NEW BUSINESS

SEWARD, Alaska, Nov. 4.—The reindeer industry promises to become one of Alaska's greatest opportunities for development, replacing old prospecting with which the territory has been associated so long.

The opportunity was revealed here when Ernest Walker Sawyer, department of interior official, announced the result of a three month survey of Alaska. Sawyer said that with proper backing it would be possible to develop the reindeer meat business so that diners in New York, London, Paris and other points would be able to enjoy the juiciness of reindeer steaks, chops and sirloin cuts.

The development of the business has been made possible through the new process that freezes meat to a 50-degree-below-zero temperature within 30 minutes.

Sawyer pointed out that with the meat prepared by this process it could be shipped all over the earth for table use.

His survey, he said, revealed that there are 1,000,000 reindeer in Alaska, tended by 2500 herders and that the herds are increasing with astounding rapidity.

The chief obstacle in the development of the business has been lack of capital by herd owners and herders. Sawyer said that he had received the promise of enough private capital to finance the plan.

Pierce Arrow Sales Overseas Increased

In spite of a generally dull automobile market in the export field, Pierce-Arrow's overseas shipments this year continue to show an increase over those of last year. The completion of September figures establishes the fact that the company's export shipments up to October 1, not including those to Canada, are 7 per cent above shipments made during the first nine months of 1929.

"While this is not a tremendous increase, it is particularly gratifying to us in the light of existing conditions in the automobile export business as a whole," said A. J. Chanter, first vice president and general manager of Pierce-Arrow.

"Of all the Pierce-Arrow export markets, Argentina has been the most active, although a number of European countries have not been far behind. In a majority of the foreign countries, the higher priced body types have been in greatest demand."

POLICE COURT IN ORANGE DROP TO LOW FIGURE

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Reports presented at the city council meeting yesterday revealed that $55 has been collected in fines during the past month by Judge G. W. Ingle and seven arrests made by the police department. Willett Winslow, traffic officer, made 26 traffic citations and 12 calls and Homer Davis, traffic officer, 20 traffic citations and 15 calls. It was reported.

Licenses collected amounted to $1584.25 and taxes collected were $1584.25. A total of $101.95 was collected from permits by Building Inspector Frank Dale. The city librarian reported a balance of $1216.50 in the treasury and the water collector $4,553.19 collected. The water superintendent reported 26,536,000 gallons of water pumped during the month and 900 feet of six-inch pipe laid with two new fire hydrants installed.

Opening of the alley from the plaza to Almond street came up for discussion, members of the council expressing themselves favorably on the matter if the consent of property owners back of the buildings on the block on South Glassell street could be obtained to dedicate the amount of property needed to open the alley.

Paul Clark, city clerk, and Mrs. Myrtle Bay, city treasurer, were granted vacations of two weeks.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—A burning trash pile in the back yard of the W. J. Isbell home, 313 South Grand street, got out of control yesterday morning and the fire department was called to put out the flames. No damage was done.

SPECIALISTS FIND WAY TO WIPE OUT EPIDEMIC OF "ATHLETE'S FOOT"

You may be a victim of the widespread infection commonly called "Athlete's Foot," and still not know what ails you. That is the way authorities explain the fact that over ten million people in the country today have this disease. If your toes itch with tiny blisters, if the skin between them turns red or white, becomes thick and moist, or develops a scaly dryness—don't take chances on serious complications. Any one of these symptoms indicate the presence of this insidious form of ringworm. Douse ABSORBINE JR. on your feet twice a day. It not only safeguards against dangerous infection, but actually kills the germs wherever it penetrates.

For after extensive tests, specialists at a famous New York laboratory found that this soothing, yet powerful, antiseptic is especially deadly to the ringworm germs which cause "Athlete's Foot."

It is wise to use ABSORBINE JR. after every exposure to wet surfaces—in public places and even in your own bathroom. For the tiny parasites breed and lurk simply everywhere, and are always ready to attack. At all drug stores, $1.25. W. F. Young, Inc., Springfield, Mass.

Police and Water Department Given Cars By Council

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Two cars were purchased at the regular meeting of the Orange city council yesterday, one for the use of the police department from the Doty Chevrolet Motor company at a cost of $777 and a truck for the use of the water department of the Mansur Motor company at a cost of $625.

Other bids were received from the L. D. Coffing company, Santa Ana, C. E. Hardy, Santa Ana, and V. W. Baden, Santa Ana.

ORANGE OFFICERS HOLD GUM MACHINE

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—The police department is in possession of a gum machine which was brought to the city hall by a motorist who found the machine in his car where it was parked at Orana.

The machine had been emptied of pennies and had a small amount of gum left. Machines of this sort usually hold about $5 in pennies, according to Officer Winslow.

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Orange city council of P.-T. A. will meet tomorrow with Mrs. Paul Ristow, North Batavia street, with a pot luck dinner at the noon hour.

Mrs. Josie Van Houten, of San Diego, visited her daughter, Mrs. Ted Seavy, in the Santa Ana hospital yesterday.

Mid-week service at the Christian church will be led by the pastor. Further Echoes of the "World Convention" will be the topic and an opportunity will be given for questions and discussions at that time.

The Leadership Training school was held at the Methodist church last night. The Rev. Franklin H. Minck was present to conduct the class on the New Testament. The Woman's Relief corps will meet in regular session Wednesday in the Smith and Grote hall at 2 o'clock.

Mid-week services at the Presbyterian church will be conducted by the pastor.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church will be held in the church parlor Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. The Bertha Epley guild members are invited to attend. Arrangements have been made to have some one in the long cabin to care for small children. The speaker will be Mrs. Ruth Sullivan, recently elected district secretary.

Mrs. Isabelle Garland, of 412 South Parker street, is visiting in Los Angeles and Glendale. Mrs. David Richards underwent a serious operation at the Anaheim hospital yesterday. Mrs. Lucy Richards, of 144 South Olive street, was with the patient all day.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pryor, of Whittier, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wettlin, of 169 North Harwood street. Mr. Pryor is a brother of Mrs. Wettlin and spent his boyhood in Orange.

COUNCIL DROPS ORDINANCE FOR PLAZA TRUCKS

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—An ordinance regulating traffic around the plaza which was to have come up for first reading at the meeting of the city council yesterday, remained unread, as protests were brought before the body by J. Graham, representing a group of truck drivers, and H. O. Wallace, representing a group of merchants of the city.

Graham said that if the rock trucks were obliged to travel around other streets where stops must be made, much delay would be occasioned and rock would be spilled in making the stops, the delay of picking up the rock setting the companies back in time. This undoubtedly would mean putting on more trucks, the speaker said.

H. O. Wallace presented a petition signed by 50 merchants who requested that the trucks be allowed to continue to go around the plaza when necessary. Restaurant men, machine shops, service stations and stores of all sorts would lose trade by forbidding the trucks to pass through the center of the business district, Wallace said. He believed that the proposed ordinance would be detrimental to business interests.

Mayor W. E. Clement declared that the ordinance had been drafted with the object of hearing both sides of the question. Chief of Police B. F. Richards was asked his opinion on the effect of the trucks on traffic around the plaza. The officer said he would not want to make a statement without analyzing the situation.

The weight of trucks was discussed by City Attorney H. L. Dearing, who said that it had been proposed to limit the weight of trucks passing through the center of the city at less than 3000 pounds. Mayor Clement stated that the matter of regulation of truck traffic around the plaza had been brought to the attention of the council by a group of persons and that the desire of the council was to hear both sides of the question before any definite action was taken.

The matter was held over for further consideration.

Lodge Officials Visit In Orange

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Ruby Rebekah lodge met in regular session last night at I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Helen Kroner, noble grand, was in the chair. An invitation was received from Torosa lodge of Santa Ana to attend a card party November 12. Mrs. Fanny Barker, district president, and Mrs. Mary Edwards, deputy marshal, made their official visit, giving instructions in the ritual. Flowers were presented to each.

A musical program was given and refreshments served by the committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart, Mrs. Blanch Porter, Mrs. Katie Heitschun and Miss Bell Handley.

CITY ORDINANCE NOT BEING ENFORCED, ATTORNEY CLAIMS

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—The attention of city council members was directed yesterday by City Attorney H. L. Dearing to the fact that a number of city ordinances are not being enforced. One of these, passed June 26, 1905, has to do with using sidewalks for displaying merchandise. The ordinance states that no more than two-and-a-half feet of sidewalk may be used for such display, the attorney said.

Another ordinance to which Dearing called attention was one passed in 1909 regarding the placing of signs along sidewalks and the others regarding public speaking in the plaza. Dearing said that public speaking in the plaza was illegal without a permit from the council.

Chief of Police B. F. Richards declared that he had broken up a number of public meetings in the plaza. Councilman L. H. Intorf said that a man talking to 10 or 12 persons might be said to be conducting a public meeting. No action was taken on the matter.

City Street Superintendent C. C. Bonebrake was authorized to have 25 small catch basins placed along Lemon street in connection with the new drain project.

LOAN ASSOCIATION IMPROVES OFFICES

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Extensive improvements are being made in the office of the Orange Building and Loan association. The room adjoining the office on the south has been added to the present officespace and the partition between the two rooms removed.

A furnace is being installed and new hardwood floors are to be laid. A new front will be put in as soon as the interior works finished.

'Hobo' Party For Methodist Church Group On Friday

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Members of the high school department of the First Methodist church are planning a "hobo" party for Friday when a progressive dinner will be served. All persons attending are to wear "hobo" costumes and the first "hand out" will be given members of the group at the home of Miss Rosemund Wagers, 131 South Batavia street.

The location of the homes where the other courses are to follow has been kept a secret from those who are planning to attend.

BOARD ENTERTAINED

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 4.—The members of the executive board of the P.-T. A. were entertained Monday at luncheon in the home of Mrs. W. H. Jones by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. A. J. Severson.

After the luncheon the president, Mrs. Mildred Ridenour, conducted the regular monthly business session of the board. Those present were Mrs. Roy K. Smith, Mrs. Warren Cady, Mrs. Otis Scott, Mrs. Velma Frost, Mrs. R. M. Hagar, Mrs. C. W. Patrick, Mrs. Gale Bergy, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Hattie Jones, Mrs. Margaret Colvin, Mrs. Mildred Ridenour, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Severson and Mrs. Jones. In December the executive board will meet with Mrs. Roy K. Smith and Mrs. C. W. Patrick.

TO ADDRESS CLUB

BUENA PARK, Nov. 4.—Terry Stephenson, of Santa Ana, author of the new book, "Camino Viejo," will be the guest of honor at a luncheon in the Woman's clubhouse November 4, at 12 o'clock. Organization of a study circle will be perfected at this meeting. The

ANAHEIM, ORANGE Y. BOYS CONVENTION

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Sixty-five "Raggers," Y. M. C. A. honor campers of Anaheim and Orange, met at the Presbyterian church, Orange, recently for their annual "Raggers" meeting. A 6 o'clock dinner was served by the women of the church.

Arval Morris, Anaheim, president of the Orange Raggers, was toastmaster of the evening. Community singing was led by J. B. Wilbur, Y. M. C. A. secretary of Orange, accompanied by Percy Green, instructor of music in the Orange high school.

The Rev. R. B. McAulay, pastor of the Orange Presbyterian church, made the main address of the evening, taking as his topic, "Little Things of Life."

"What the Blue Rag Means to Me" was the topic for discussion by Alvin Chandler, Anaheim; "What the Brown Rag Means to Me" was told by Eldon Murray, Orange; Marshall Beebe, Anaheim, talked on "What the Red Rag Means to Me," and Arval Morris, Anaheim, told what the "white rag" means to him. The color of the "rag" designates the accomplishments and rank of the "ragger."

A prayer service directed by Conrad Jongewaard, Anaheim, Y. secretary, closed the meeting.

SCHOOL ELECTORS APPROVE PURCHASE

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—At a meeting of the electors of the Orange high school district last night, members of the school board were authorized to purchase 10 lots in the vicinity of the high school to be used for a girls' playground, an addition to the athletic field and tennis courts. A lot is also to be purchased as an addition to the El Modena school site and will be used as the location of an Americanization building.

The purchase of the lots will involve about $20,000. L. W. Evans presided at the meeting which was held at the high school and a standing vote was taken. Between 20 and 30 electors were present.

Regular club business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock. The luncheon will be pot-luck.

PASTOR TELLS OF CONVENTION IN WASHINGTON

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—The Rev. Franklin H. Minck filled the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday after an absence of three weeks. The pastor has been attending the world's convention of Christian churches at Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Frank Downing, pastor emeritus of the Christian church at Fullerton, offered the morning prayer. The Rev. Mr. Minck thanks the individuals and the congregation for giving him leave of absence.

William Dublin, of Los Angeles, former choir leader of the church, sang "Plains of Peace," by Barnard, "Kingdoms and Thrones" was the anthem given by the choir.

The Rev. Mr. Minck said in part: "The journey from the union depot along the streets of the capitol to the National City Christian church was a revelation of the grandeur of the capitol city. One of the two great projects of the convention was the dedication of the church, which was a gift from the members all over the nation. The building was erected at a cost of $1,750,000, as a symbol of the essential unity of all those who follow Christ."

Daily services were held there with sermons by outstanding preachers. The dedication service was held at 6 o'clock Sunday morning with an attendance of 5000.

"The messages were wonderful but the association with the people from all the 35 nations represented there, was even more wonderful. All nations reported progress except China."

The reception tendered the convention by President Herbert Hoover on the lawn at the White House with the 5000 delegates passing in review was one of the impressive scenes of the convention.

"Two communion services were held Sunday afternoon at the close of the national convention and the beginning of the world's convention which was held in three sections of the city representing the 75,000 members of the Brotherhood of Christian unity, with a unit of one million and a half of people."

"Missionaries from the fields numbering about 45 gave one-minute talks. Don McGavran, missionary to India, said: 'More children go to bed hungry in India than go to bed filled in America. Two hundred million people are still bowing down to the images of animals in India. Their religion is against progress. Christ is their only hope.' F. D. Snipes, missionary to Africa said, 'None of the 30,000 members of our church in Africa use tobacco because they want that money to support Christ's work.' Miss Chen HsiRen of China, said, 'Because Christ's disciples obeyed His command, I am here today. Otherwise I would have been a hethen.' The convention revealed how rapidly Christianity is gaining a hold on the minds and hearts of the people around the globe.

"A special project was the launching of a drive for eight million dollars to start a pension fund for aged ministers. A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested by the outstanding laymen who spoke of the movement."

In closing the pastor spoke of the growth of Christianity which today has more followers than any other form of religion in the world, he said.

The sermon delivered Sunday evening was on "Unnoted Gains and Losses." The Rev. Mr. Minck said in part, "We keep two books, one a cash book of our material possessions and the other a book of our spiritual possessions. We know just how we stand by a look at our cash book, but we know not the supply influences that affect our spiritual possessions. As a man thinketh so he is. We daily pass judgment upon ourselves when the testing time comes we know how we have builded."

Mrs. Leon Des Larzes sang during the evening service. The selections rendered were "Nobody Knows the Trouble I Has" and "Steal Away to Jesus."

MRS. COLE TO LEAD MID-WEEK SERVICE

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Walter B. Cole will lead the mid-week meeting at the First Methodist church owing to the meeting of the Men's Service club of the church the same night. Mrs. Cole will take as the subject of her talk, "Home—Today and Yesterday."

The banquet will be held in the Epworth hall and Carl Stuckey is in charge of arrangements. Dinner is to be served at 6:30 p. m.

Social Enjoyed by Alice Lewis Guild

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—The Alice Lewis guild of the First Presbyterian church met in the church parlors last night, when a delightful social hour was spent and refreshments served on individual trays by Mrs. John J. Vernon, at the close of the evening. Two comforts were tied and are to be sent to Alice Lewis, missionary in Hong Kong, China. Gifts for the Christmas box which is to be sent to China were brought. A brief business session was held.

Those present were Mrs. Vernon Estes, Mrs. Ensey Campbell, Mrs. John J. Vernon, Mrs. Horace Inge, Mrs. Wilbur Woods, Mrs. J. T. McInnes, Mrs. E. C. Frevert, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. Dorothy Finister, Mrs. Fern Carpenter, Mrs. Selma Stockwell and Miss Edna Case.

AUTO PARKING DISCUSSED BY CITY COUNCIL

ORANGE, Nov. 4.—Plans for parking until the holidays were discussed by the members of the city council yesterday when Oscar Leichfuss, representing the Merchants' Service bureau, appeared before the body with suggestions for relieving parking congestion during this period.

Leichfuss said that merchants are asking other merchants not to park their own cars in the business district all day. He suggested that the chief of police distribute courtesy cards to car owners asking their co-operation in providing parking space for shoppers.

Three lots might be secured as free parking places, the speaker said, the Nels Edwards lot, the vacant lots near the Banner market and the old school grounds of the St. John's Lutheran school.

Members of the council expressed themselves in favor of the idea and an informal discussion of the parking problem with special reference to 20-minute parking spaces followed.

OLIVE

OLIVE, Nov. 4.—Mrs. E. B. McCoy, agent at the Santa Fe depot at Olive has as her guests her son and daughter-in-law and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. George McCoy and son, Teddy, of Wenatchee, Wash. The young people also are visiting Mrs. McCoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Huff, of South Shafter street, Orange.

Other guests in the McCoy home over the week end were Mrs. Emily Moreland and son, Hugh, of San Diego, and Mrs. Kate Schuman, of Whittier, who recently came to California from Duluth, Minn.

"DANDERINE" Dissolves Crust of Dandruff

Soothes Scalp; Gives New Life and Lustre to Hair!

There's no use allowing unsightly dandruff to steal the life from your hair; make it dull, brittle and craggy; turn it gray or start it to falling out. "Danderine" will dissolve the worst crust of dandruff in a hurry. It will bring the glow of health back to your scalp. Its consistent use will encourage the hair to grow long, thick, more youthful-looking.

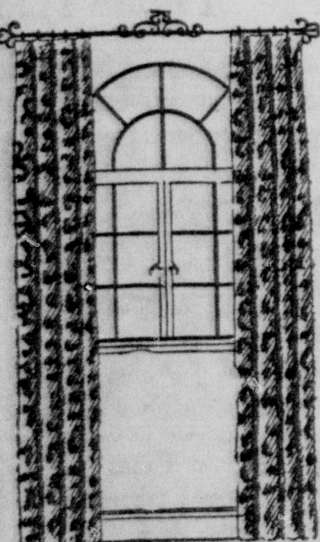

You will be delighted by the effects of "Danderine's" first application. Excess oil is removed from the hair; its natural color is brought out marvelously; it sparkles with new life and lustre.

Five million bottles of Danderine used a year shows its popularity! And you won't wonder at this once you learn its easy use and see how quickly it gives health to the scalp and vigor and youthful appearance to the hair!

Every drug and toilet counter in the land has Danderine—35c bottles. —Adv.

The trial of the damage and injunction suit brought by the Talbert Drainage district and others against the city of Santa Ana in connection with the work of opening the Santa Ana boulevard and bridge across the Santa Ana river, was continued yesterday when it came up for trial.

Continuance was taken because none of the Orange county superior judges was qualified to try the action, it was stated today by Judge G. K. Scovel. The argument on demurrer to the suit was heard before Judge Benjamin Warner, of San Bernardino county. The matter was continued until December 17, when a judge from some other county will be brought in to try the case.

PLAN SCHOOL MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the superintendent's council will be held next Monday night at the new cafeteria in the Julia Lathrop high school, it was announced today from the office of city school superintendent J. A. Cranston.

Calumpit Auxiliary Announces Bazaar Date

In accordance with their long established custom of holding a pre-holiday bazaar to raise funds for relief and charity work, members of Calumpit auxiliary, U. S. W. V. have announced their 1930 event to take place this week, when a wide assortment of articles of clothing, household linens, cooked foods, canned fruits and jellies will be on sale from Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, until Saturday night, at 811 East Fourth street.

The auxiliary women have been giving their spare time for months to working on articles for the bazaar and recognizing the present financial depression, have priced their work so low as to bring it within the means of everyone. In anticipation of the opening date they have made an attractive display of representative articles and placed it in the windows where passersby may see the many desirable things that will be available to them for three days.

In connection with the linens, quilts, canned goods and delicious home-cooked foods, there will be a department devoted to a rummage sale.

Everyone will be especially interested in one embroidered luncheon cloth which will be displayed, for it is of native Norwegian work, given to the auxiliary by Mrs. J. W. Isbell of Orange, whose sister in Norway made it especially for her to present.

Luncheon Enjoyed By Chapter Members

Members of Chapter AB P. E. O. enjoyed a most delightful session yesterday afternoon when Mrs. R. B. Newcom and Mrs. Chester Watkins were hostesses, entertaining in the former's home in Orange. A delectable luncheon was served at an early hour.

Mrs. Bruce Switzer presided at the usual business session which followed. The program included the reading of original poems by Mrs. George Bond. Husbands will be entertained at the next meeting when a dinner party will be held.

Dinner Party Was Pretty Event

A charming little dinner party of the past week was that with Mrs. Caroline Good as hostess in her home at 2831 Greenleaf street. Table decorations evidenced the gay Halloween motif, with black cats and witches assisting in carrying out the chosen color scheme.

Those sharing Mrs. Good's hospitality were two daughters of the home, the Misses Caroline and Katherine Good, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Witt and children, Evelyn and "Billy," of this city, and Jack Marsh, of San Diego.

Parents Presided at Pretty Dinner Party

Honoring their son, Harry, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weekly were dinner hosts Sunday, entertaining in their home on North Ross street. The table was prettily appointed, and roses and chrysanthemums decked the rooms.

Those present, other than Mr. and Mrs. Weekly, the hosts, and Harry, the honor guest, were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Weekly, Miss Arline Rathbun, Miss Pauline Richardson, "Pat" Weekly and Robert Weekly.

Make It Yourself

Any kind of lingerie set makes an excellent Christmas gift for the school girl, the business or professional. But the colorful collar, cuff and belt set made of glamorous gold and silver lame is a gift of the gods!

Three-quarters of a yard of the gold material and one-quarter of the silver makes the set. (You can make it of colorful taffeta and gold, or of plaid taffeta just as well.)

Cut the collar slightly rounded to fit the back of the neck and then taper it slightly to a V neck and flare it into its own bow tie ends. The cuffs should flare at the bottom and fit the sleeve at the top. The belt is straight, two and a half inches wide, fastened with a rhinestone buckle.

Cut the gold material into bias strips and stitch them, or put them on by blind hand hemming. In diagonal stripes, about three inches apart. The neck portion of the collar should have a bias strip that fits under the collar line of the dress the set is worn with.

Put onto a black velvet or colored velvet or silk dress, this set makes a formal little costume of it. (Copyright, 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

JUNIOR LIONS PLANNING FOR DINNER DANCE

That Junior Lions' ladies' night is to be held next Monday night at Ketter's cafe and will be in the form of a dinner dance was decided last night when Junior Lions of Santa Ana Junior college held their regular meeting at the home of Abbott Mason, 1047 West Second street. All pledges were requested to attend with their girl friends.

Those in charge are Martin Bowman and Willard Minor, place cards and dance programs; Ed Meador, program chairman, and Leslie McDonald, decorations.

It was decided to put out a Junior Lions pamphlet that will include the local Den's constitution, a brief history of the organization, charter members and all other members and the club songs. Abbott Mason, Martin Bowman and Willard Minor are to put out this pamphlet.

The program for the rally to be staged before the Fullerton-Santa Ana college junior football game was outlined and will consist of scraps between the sophomores and freshmen, including a tug of war, a sack and pole rush.

Lion pledges present were Mitchell Hookins, John Crowley, Laurin Griggs, Richard Robbins and Paul Wright.

WOOD CARAVEL OF LOUIS XIV ORDERED BUILT

BY JOHN WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
HONFLEUR, Normandy, Oct. 4.—(UP)—This little Norman seafaring village is prouder than it has been for 100 years, and an Argentine, Dr. Carlos Noel, is responsible. Dr. Noel has commissioned Jean Prentout, ship builder extraordinary, to fashion him a wooden caravel in the image of those which flew the French flag in the glorious reign of Louis XIV.

Already the stout oaken hull of the caravel, which is to be called Izarra, the Basque word for star, has been laid in the business like yards of M. Prentout, and soon the giant figures of bow and stern, a mermaid and a Napoleonic swan, will be carved out of the rough oak by another Argentine, a wood carver hired for the express purpose by Dr. Noel. The Izarra will have a displacement of two hundred tons. It will be 110 feet long, with a 28-foot beam. The bridge will measure 93 feet. The draught will be seven feet, four inches and the height above the water line at the stern will be 18 feet.

The caravel will be rigged with the usual square sails, but it will not depend on these for propulsion, as the Izarra will be equipped with a single 120-horse power Diesel motor capable of driving it across the ocean should the occasion demand.

The boat deck will include a large saloon and office forward and officers' quarters in the stern while "A" deck will contain the owner's quarters, three guest rooms, three baths, galley, engine room and crew's quarters.

Where Dr. Noel will take his 2,000,000 franc craft when she is complete next spring is a secret from the builder himself. "I presume she will deploy in coastal waters and in the Mediterranean," M. Prentout said, adding proudly, "but she is certainly capable of crossing the Atlantic, if her owner should ever care to show her to his countrymen."

Court Notes

A complaint asking a decree of quiet title was filed yesterday in superior court by E. J. Mossinger and others, against Corva V. Shank, as administratrix of an estate. The property involved is located in Huntington Beach.

Charging failure to provide and asking custody of their two daughters and an order for their support, Willa R. Richardson yesterday filed a divorce suit against Letcher B. Richardson. The couple was married in Kern county in 1916.

Foreclosure of a chattel mortgage and judgment of $1720 as the alleged unpaid balance due and owing on a promissory note is sought in an action that was instituted in superior court here yesterday by J. H. and Louise Estus against J. B. Jackson and others.

Venceslao J. Mendez is plaintiff in a divorce action filed against Carlota Mendez yesterday afternoon in superior court in which he charges cruelty and asserts that the defendant is a woman of vile and ungovernable temper and jealous disposition. They were married in 1927 and separated Nov. 2, 1930.

Petition for probate of the will of Sarah Ellen Cook has been filed with County Clerk J. M. Backs by William H. and Walter A. Cook, sons of the maker of the will, who were named executors. The sons are principal beneficiaries. The value of the estate is given as not in excess of $20,000.

A petition to compromise the claim of Lucille E. Dyckman, 18, against the Thompson Glass and Paint company, et al., was granted yesterday by Judge G. K. Scovel. The girl received injuries in an accident on March 14, which resulted in a damage suit against the defendants, asking $15,500. The stipulation for judgment on record in the case provided that she should receive $600.

Joe Garcia was arraigned yesterday before Judge G. K. Scovel on a burglary charge. He entered a plea of guilty and asked for probation. The hearing was set for November 7. Garcia is charged with entering the J. R. Watts store at Los Alamitos on October 11 with burglarious intent.

MEETING DEFERRED

The regular weekly meeting of the county board of supervisors, scheduled for today, was postponed until tomorrow on account of the election today.

PANTRY SHELF

FINDS PARABLE OF HISTORY IN GOSPEL SCENE

"The Transfiguration" was the subject of the lecture delivered at the service of the National Federation Spiritual Science church in East Fourth street last evening by the Rev. Paul Andres, pastor of the church, based on the text "He was transfigured before them." Mark 8:2.

"In all this story there is a graphic parable of truth concerning human life," the pastor said. "Man is surprised at his own weakness. He tries his strength and fails. How like the scene which took place at the foot of Tabor while the Master is being transfigured at the top, is the whole history of humankind!"

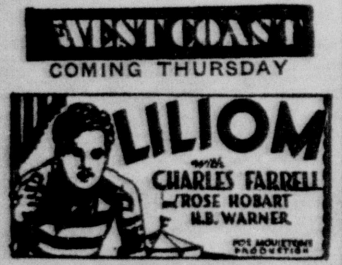

"It is wonderful that the exaltation of Jesus in His praying should have magnetized into visibility that higher hidden world which is always over us and around, or that the love of the Master for the three apostles should have broken their sleep with shafts of that glory and voices of that speech. No names were spoken; no one said to the apostles, this is Elijah, this Moses; but spirit-force leaped into the minds of the law-givers and the greatest of the prophets were with them then. Sleep was utterly gone; their blood flowed in racing tumults as they looked upon the illumined face of the Master. The mists that had crept upon the hillsides from thick woods of pine and cedar became luminous with the kindred beauty, as when in the old Hebrew story the Glory of God rested upon the tabernacle in the wilderness. And in each man's inmost soul came a conviction as with a voice that, sealed from God, 'Thy name is My Son, My chosen; Rise, Ye Him!'

"As power mightier than Rome and cleaner than Greece had been revealed in a human form. And for all time this had been made clear that the divinest thing in the world is not power to compel the reluctant obedience of men, nor even skill to weave the gossamer beauty of mythology out of human instinct for the supernatural, but faithfulness to truth, love of love, obedience to the things of the spirit, blending in a devotion which can make of life itself one supreme offering.

"It is when I have lifted up mine eyes that I am impressed with the solitary majesty of the Son of Man; it is in the elevation of my own moral view that I see Him to be what He is—the King of Kings."

CONDUCT SERVICES

BUENA PARK, Nov. 4.—Funeral services for James B. Ellmore, 74, father of Ivan Ellmore of East Orangehorpe avenue, were conducted from the Church of Christ at 200 North Sichel street, Los Angeles, today at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery. The O. A. Stone Funeral directors of Buena Park had charge of the services. Mr. Ellmore is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mollie Ellmore, and two sons, A. W., of Stockton, and Ivan, of Buena Park.

Three Bottles Helped Her

"I cannot praise your good medicine enough. After my baby came I was rundown. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman. If any other mother has those tired feelings like I had, I advise her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Harold Goodnow, 36 Cane Street, Fitchburg, Massachusetts.

Associated Will Hold Session In New High School

NEWPORT HEIGHTS, Nov. 4.—The Associated Chambers of Commerce will hold its combined November and December meeting at the Newport Harbor union high school, it was stated today by G. C. Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, who was asked by President J. S. Malcom of the association to arrange the meeting.

Efforts are being made to make this a joint meeting with the Orange County Coast association, December 15. That is the suggested date for the association meeting, as the Mexico excursionists will be back by that time.

From 150 to 200 can be accommodated in the dining room of the new school, according to Principal S. H. Davidson and Miss Mildred Terpetra, in charge of the school's home economics department. Those attending the meeting will be shown around the new building.

41 GUESTS ATTEND HALLOWE'EN PARTY

TUSTIN, Nov. 4.—Skeletons, witches and cats and other things that send shivers down one's spine were apparent Friday evening in the Henry Pankey home, when Mrs. Pankey entertained 41 members of the seventh grade in the Tustin grammar school at a merry Halloween party in honor of her son, Robert.

The guests entered through a window and were greeted by scary ghosts. The pirate, a gypsy girl, the beggar girl and witches were all represented among the motley crowd of noisy children. Mrs. Alice Kiser presided at the popular fortune telling booth and gave each child a favor. The happy evening came to a close when ice cream and cakes carrying out the orange and black color theme were served. Mrs. Pankey was assisted by Mesdames Ed King, Dan Adams, Alice Kiser and Hugh Plumb in supervising the games and serving the refreshments.

BLESSINGS OF REFORMATION ARE OUTLINED

The Rev. William Schmook, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, East Sixth and Lacy streets, preached at the morning service Sunday on "Blessings of the Reformation."

"The thousand years before Luther's time are known as the dark ages," he asserted. "There was intellectual darkness, spiritual confusion and ignorance and moral corruption and perversion, caused by false instruction and erroneous teaching, leading to such follies as the Crusades, the constant contention between church and state, and an unbounded superstition among the people."

"The instrument which God used to cast off the bonds of superstition, ignorance, and spiritual darkness was the same that He had employed in preparing Luther, the man through whom the work of the Reformation was to be carried out, viz. the Word of God. 'The entrance of thy word giveth light,' Ps. 119:130. The Bible made of Luther a courageous, singing, rejoicing, testifying teacher and preacher of God's Word. The Reformer of the church, the forerunner of modern enlightenment, the leader in church and school, who was ready to stand for the truth into the bitter end."

"It was the Bible which rescued science, drove out superstition from the soul of man, and restored the power of the sword to its rightful possessor. The Bible, translated into the vernacular of the people and thus made accessible to all, is the chief blessing of the Reformation and from it flow other blessings, such as the emancipation of the schools and religious liberty which we enjoy here in our country. The great Reformer was a strong advocate of education because education enabled men to hear, learn, and read God's Word, and God's Word enables us to know the truth about God's creation and to judge all things. It is therefore, and always has been, the true foundation for genuine, scientific advancement and learning."

Party Held For Three Daughters

TUSTIN, Nov. 4.—Mrs. W. Page, of Pacific avenue, was hostess at a merry Halloween party, entertaining for her three daughters, Elsie, Dorothy and Frances Page. Witches, ghosts and pumpkins adorned the living rooms and afforded an appropriate background for the evening's games and contests. Adding to the spooky effect were the amusing costumes worn by the children.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake concluded the happy evening which was shared by Elsie, Dorothy and Frances Page, Faye Ellen Holford, Phyllis Jones, Leonard Schwendeman, Donald Holdord, Mary Jane Leinberger, Meredith Freeman, Bobbie Holford, Billy Leinberger, of Tustin; Roberta McKnight, of Santa Ana, and Dorothy Wetherbee, of Orange.

SUNSET BEACH

SUNSET BEACH, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Armitage, of Ocean avenue, entertained the following guests the latter part of the week: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rose, Mesdames Agnes Brotherton, Fannie Newton and Fred West, all of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Earle entertained the following guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. N. Smith and sons, Charles and Verne, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Crosby, all of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hernandez and daughters, of Los Angeles, entertained a host of friends over Sunday at their beach cottage on Park avenue.

Miss Rosa Lee Phillips, of Los Angeles, entertained the following guests at a house party over the week end at their beach home on Fifteenth street: Misses Bernadette and Agnes Barrett and John King and Richard McCormick, all of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Unholtz and family, of Los Angeles, spent the week end at their beach cottage on Fifteenth street, entertaining the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. S. Harper and sons and Mr. Unholtz's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thomas and family, of Pasadena, enjoyed a two-day outing at their beach home on Canal way.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald James, of Los Angeles, spent Saturday and

MISSIONARIES TO CONDUCT SERVICES

WESTMINSTER, Nov. 4.—The annual praise meeting of the Westminster Presbyterian Missionary society is to be held next Sunday evening at the local church. Envelopes for the usual thank offering have been given members for the evening. A missionary will hold the service, which will open at 7:30 o'clock.

A returned missionary, Mrs. A. E. Brown, is to speak at the morning service at the church, making the services for the entire day on the missionary theme. Dr. Charles F. Ensign, of Long Beach, supplied the local pulpit Sunday morning and conducted a meeting at which Wednesday evening, November 12, was set as the date for a meeting of officers of the church to attend to business coming up. Dr. Ensign will moderate the meeting.

It is announced that the superintendent of Latin-American work will be at the Westminster Methodist Mexican church next Sunday morning and the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Jiminez, invited everyone interested in the work to attend.

Sunday at their beach cottage on the state highway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bear, of Los Angeles, entertained guests at their home on Twenty-fifth street over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Armitage, of Ocean avenue, had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alward and daughters, Virginia and Elizabeth, of Hollywood.

Vitalizing qualities now found... in this long favored Cereal

HAVE you heard why doctors recommend that every child eat whole-grain cereals often?

Here is the reason. Whole grains have been found to be extraordinarily rich in the precious Vitamin B, and whole wheat—wheat containing the heart—has been found richest of all in this vitamin that promotes growth, that protects children from under-nourishment, nervousness, and poor appetite.

And to its wealth of Vitamin B, Carnation Wheat adds a supply of Vitamin A... both essential to growth, vigor, healthy appetites, nerve strength—and Vitamin E, the mysterious life force that means so much in later years.

Yet many children today are getting no cereal containing the wheat heart.

Give them health and a delicious flavor treat in a hot whole wheat cereal. Carnation Wheat! Appetizing, creamy flakes with the heart of the choicest California white Sonora wheat.

Carnation Wheat brings all the values of the wheat... bran, the regulator... carbohydrates for energy... body-building proteins... minerals for red blood and sturdy bones.

Here is, truly—the Vitalizing Cereal!

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

BATTLE OVER USE OF BIBLE IN SCHOOLS

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 4.—(UP)—A three-sided controversy of wide proportions is brewing over the Bible, a forbidden book on shelves of public school libraries in the state.

Since Washington became a state, religious education in common schools had been forbidden by a constitutional provision. Time and again, the question had been taken through the courts. It was brought up again when George I. Clithero and R. L. Edmiston of Spokane secured over 100 names on a petition asking the State Board of Education to hold a hearing on advisability of compulsory daily Bible reading and compulsory Bible instruction twice a week in all schools.

At the same time, N. D. Showalter, state school superintendent, initiated an unsuccessful movement to use the Bible as a civics and literature reference book. The state board refused to take action on the Clithero petition on the ground it lacked jurisdiction. Edmiston is expected to seek a writ of mandamus compelling the board to hold a hearing.

Showalter's proposal was doomed when Attorney General John H. Dunbar held that the Bible was essentially a religious book and could not be used in any manner in schools. The superintendent replied with a brief supporting his position. He declared a constitutional amendment was needed to make the book available in education work.

CYPRESS

CYPRESS, Nov. 4.—Josephine and Leona Kemp entertained with a Halloween party Saturday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kemp, of Orange avenue.

Halloween decorations were used and black and orange candy marked the place of each guest. After an evening spent playing games, each guest was served with sandwiches, pumpkin pie, cookies, apples and punch. Those bidden to the affair were Edith Williamson, Ruena Park; Eldoren and Wilburn Spohn, of Western avenue; Elizabeth Knott, Grand avenue, Thelma

Le Bel, La Palma; Venita and Selma Anderson, Louisa Rettich, Alfred Hartman, Gustaf and Selma Stark, Clara Fae and Donna Rae Anderson, Hanson road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson entertained with a party at their home on Hansen road Saturday evening. Sandwiches, cake and punch were served. The invited guests were the Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kempe, of Cypress; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Middleton, Mrs. Lynne W. Wonderly and Burd Morley, of Long Beach; Mrs. Maud Anderson and Mrs. Reva Anderson, of Los Angeles.

Miss Mae Belle Kitchens was honored with a birthday dinner given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kitchens, of Hansen road, Wednesday. The table was decorated with tall orange tapers and black and orange favors. A three-course chicken dinner was served.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Kitchens Jr. and children, of Anaheim; Miss Irene Matthews, of Whittier; George Schacht, of Anaheim, and Albert Schacht, of Inglewood.

The dinner was followed by a surprise party for Mae Belle given by Mr. and Mrs. George Kitchens Jr.

Halloween games were the diversion of the evening and refreshments were served later. Covers were laid for Miss Lillian Massey, Santa Ana; Miss Lydia Hudspeth, La Habra; Mr. and Mrs. Arch Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry, Miss Lillian Hytlen, Claude Lane, Matthew Betzold and Marion Henry, of Anaheim, and those who attended the dinner with the hosts and honoree.

Miss Freida Priddy entertained with a masquerade party at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mae Whitacre, of Anaheim, Thursday evening. Ghostly shadows on an orange curtain over the front door of the home greeted the guests as they arrived and in the rooms decorated with pumpkin floor lamps, there were many spooky arrangements.

Fortunes were told on place cards for the guests at midnight, when refreshments were served.

There were favors and quaint caps provided by the hostess for each guest. A box of candy posted for the best stunt went to Miss Brownell and Miss Leonard took the box of stationery offered for the best brief ghost story.

The guests were Albert Toussou, Kathryn Dunham, Victor LaMont, Joe Wagner, Herman Stoffel, Elva Hamler, Valeria Brownell, Harvey Gurth, Ruth Rockwell, Clyde Harris, Claire Leonard, Adam Lehr, Evan Backs, Allen Knife, Kathleen Frye and Foster Chestnut, of Anaheim; Dean Priddy, Georgia, Rae Fitzgerald, Irene Hytlen, Margaret Inskeep and Melvin Coburn, of Cypress, and Rex Woodward, of Hansen.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wood, 211 Crest avenue, spent Sunday in Pasadena as the guests of Mr. Wood's parents.

Mrs. C. R. Furr has returned from a six weeks' visit to points in Minnesota, where she was the guest of her mother and other relatives and friends.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Balowin was the scene of a Halloween party Friday night when their daughter, Ruth, entertained a half dozen of her young friends at Halloween games. Refreshments were served.

The Harvesters club of the M. E. church held a Halloween costume party at the Hittsdale garage with about 100 guests present. A small charge was made for refreshments, the money to go into the piano fund to help pay for the piano the club is buying for the church. The party was one of the merriest of the Halloween season.

OLIVE

OLIVE, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lemke and daughter, Norma; Mrs. and Mrs. William E. Paulus and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Timken and family, Mr. and Mrs. August Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walther Timken and children, Miss Melvina Stohlmann, Edwin Lemke and Arthur Lemke, motored to Glendale Sunday to attend the confirmation service at Zion Lutheran church, the Rev. H. O. Kringel, pastor. In the confirmation class was Mrs. Ben Arnold, formerly Mrs. Willella Lemke, who was received into the church by the sacred rite of baptism. After the service the Olive party had dinner at the home of Mrs. Arnold in La Crescenta. Other guests at the dinner were Mrs. Arnold's father, Jim Brazelton, her husband and children, Leona, Vera and Edith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wajahn, of Enid, Okla., called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timken last week. They had visited with Mr. and Mrs. August Schroeder in Escondido and are now on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timken and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Stohlmann at a duck dinner recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus and Mrs. Edwin Brelle and son, Ronald, motored to El Centro Friday and returned Sunday evening, visiting with Edwin Brelle, who is employed in the grapefruit harvest.

The Rev. E. H. Kreidt attended the Lutheran Pastoral conference at Trinity Lutheran church in San Diego last week, making the trip with the Reverends Ed Joesting, William Ruff, A. C. Bode of Orange, H. Schmelzer of Anaheim, William Schmoeck of Santa Ana, and A. M. Wyneken of Long Beach.

Edward Schroeder of Orange occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Olive for the English service Sunday morning. Mr. Schroeder is a student of theology at Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Walther Timken and children were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Timken Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hermesmyer, of Pueblo, Colo., who is spending the winter in Long Beach, has been visiting with Mrs. Beecher the past week.

SILVER ACRES

SILVER ACRES, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry and family and Mrs. Berry's sister, Mrs. Frank Ashton and son, of Los Angeles, were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rathbone, of Santa Ana.

Mrs. J. G. McCracken spent Monday and Tuesday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Henry Melvin is spending a week in Wilmington the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hardcastle.

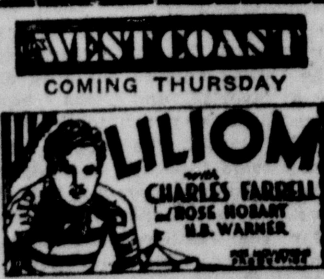

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bates, of Los Angeles, visited Mr. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bates, Sunday.

The Silver Acres Woman's club will meet November 12 instead of November 5, its regular date, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Klenck, with Mrs. Vada Berry as co-hostess.

ZUPPKE'S REVELATION

"My most successful football team," says Coach Bob Zuppke of the University of Illinois, "lost every game we played that season except one."

Zuppke wrote a story for the American Magazine recently in which he described what he regards as a few of the essentials of football. According to Zuppke's standards, growth and development are the measure of success.

Zuppke's "most successful team," he says, was the 1921 eleven. Most of the candidates at the start of the season were green, awkward and ignorant of football. But every week their playing got better.

LEAVES STARS BEHIND

"We were closing the season at Columbus," writes the Illinois coach, "and we hadn't won a game. Ohio State had the outstanding team in the Big Ten that year. Illinois, it was reckoned, would be easy for her."

"There were a few veteran players on our team. Both the ends were. These two had been members of championship eleven in previous years, and their experience of defeats was bitter medicine. On the Wednesday before the Ohio game I said to them: 'You two are going to stay here in Champaign. We want to win a game!'"

USES SCRUB ENDS

"They had become unconscious defeatists, didn't think the team could win and were infecting others with the deadly wall of the loser. So, in spite of a storm of protest, I left these veterans and took in their places two scrub ends. Illinois won, 7 to 0. 'I call that one of the most successful teams because they grew into so much from so little. And the members of that team, a losing team, remember, the kind of team where the relations between players and coach are strained if they ever are going to be paid me the greatest compliment of my career. They drew up a statement and signed their names under it, and next to my wife, I value that scrap of paper more than anything I possess on earth. One sentence in it might stand as the universal slogan of the brotherhood of fighters."

"Whatever our faults, many people were good enough to say that we never quit."

THE SNEER

"It is mighty hard to become a champion, harder still to remain one. No champion in any walk of life should be sneered at—not even the crooked champion. A sneer is the worst resort of the feeble, the whipped, the little-muscled, little-spirited souls who wish they could and can't. There is a saying in this neighborhood of ours: 'The dumbest farmers always raise the biggest potatoes.'"

"And who says it? All the other wise fellows who try to raise big potatoes and fail."

From which you may discern one of the reasons why the football teams of Bob Zuppke at the University of Illinois are always dangerous.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Winter golfers already have hit the trail westward for the season. . . . the big shots gathered at Salt Lake City for the $4000 purse, featuring George Von Elm's departure for the amateur ranks. . . . on the first two days of November, the boys will unpack their niblicks at Spokane. . . . the climax will come in January when the bunker-busters warm up at Agua Caliente through California, Texas, Florida, Louisiana and Georgia. . . . with purses totaling more than $100,000. . . . Bob Harlow has been trying to convince chambers of commerce in the western cities that a cut of 10 per cent for the Tournament Bureau of the P. G. A. is reasonable but has been meeting with good arguments all along the line.

HOOKS AND SLIDES CHANGE FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Saint Squad Still In Race For Grid Title

LOCAL ELEVEN HAS 'BREATHING' GAME FRIDAY

Still a little blue and downcast because of their defeat at San Diego, Coach "Tex" Oliver's Santa Ana Saints today welcomed the apparent "breather" that pops up next on their Coast Preparatory league football schedule.

The high school squad will play Glendale Friday afternoon, and unless Glendale is 100 per cent better than its early season scores indicate, the Olivemen should have a romp to break up their intensive schedule.

Glendale held the crack Alhambra club to a 7-0 count but otherwise its record is unimpressive. The Dynamiters lost to Pasadena, 26-0, and to Woodrow Wilson, 12-7, and tied Fullerton 6 to 6. Santa Ana beat Pasadena, 34-0, and buried Wilson, 33 to 6.

Despite its 19-12 reversal at the hands of the league-leading Hilltoppers, Santa Ana is anything but eliminated from the conference "Derby." San Diego still must contend with Long Beach and Alhambra, both undefeated. Long Beach plays three "hot numbers"—Santa Ana, Alhambra and San Diego. Alhambra meets San Diego and Long Beach on successive Saturdays.

If one of the Saints' three chief rivals emerges unbeaten from that caldron of competition it certainly will be entitled to the championship.

But if none comes through unscathed, the title will come to Santa Ana—if the Saints win from Long Beach here a week from Saturday—because the Olivemen will have played more games than any other and will have the better record on percentage.

That is why the Saints will have an even chance with their field. The Saints had a comparatively easy day yesterday, their work being limited to the usual run of Monday "exercise" devoid of all scrimmage, but they will have hard labor poured all over them today and tomorrow.

Oliver was dissatisfied with the conduct of his men both offensively and defensively and will level on the weak spots this week. None of the Saints suffered serious injury Saturday. Captain Al Rehobin and "Top" Blower, quarter and end, respectively, got cramps in their knees during the battle but were all O. K. yesterday.

WILLIAMS REVEALS BASEBALL FIGURES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—On the eve of the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast league, President Harry A. Williams announced today that attendance during the past seven years has increased 2,000,000 over the seven-year period previous to 1923, and that gate receipts have climbed more than $1,500,000.

There is talk of a successor to Williams, whose term expires in January. J. Cal Ewing, former Oakland club owner, is declared to be seeking the job, but Williams, who in his statement said he had never sought to mend political fences, is expected to be re-elected.

Coast league officers will meet in San Francisco Friday, when a playing schedule for 1931 and the draft controversy will be discussed.

TUNNEY-MARA LEGAL 'BOUT' BARES EX-CHAMP'S EARNINGS

BY JAMES L. KILGALLAN

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—"Time out" until tomorrow afternoon has been called in the wordy battle in supreme court in which Timothy J. Mara, sports promoter, is swinging legal upshots to the financial chin of James T. Tunney, retired heavy-weight champion of the world.

Mara is staging his fight before a jury of 12 men whom he hopes will render a decision that will enable him to collect approximately $500,000 from Tunney's fat bankroll. Mara alleges that Tunney broke a verbal agreement to pay him 10 per cent of his earnings if Mara would do his best to ballyhoo him into a fight with Jack Dempsey, and that if he won the bout he would give him 25 per cent of his earnings thereafter while he was the champion.

That would be a sizable sum. For it was disclosed in court that including and since the Dempsey fight in Philadelphia when Tunney won the title in September 1926 his gross income was $1,742,282.04 and 25 per cent of this amount would be $435,570.61.

For two days on the stand Mara, a well-groomed man of 43, with close-cropped, reddish curly hair and brisk, aggressive manner, told what he had done for Tunney to bring about a fight with Dempsey. Tomorrow, when the trial is resumed, the defense will have its innings—or round.

Sports Name For Newport Hi Is 'Tars'

Athletes of the new Newport Harbor union high school will be known as the "Sailors" or "Tars" when the school gets football, baseball, basketball and other sports organized within the next year, it was learned today.

Already some of the boys have an intra-mural basketball league going, and by next fall, when all four years of instruction will be given, it is expected that baseball and football will be regularly organized sports.

In keeping with the marine atmosphere, blue will be a dominating color in all athletic uniforms.

Finishing touches are being put on the new gymnasium.

JOBLESS TO BE AIDED BY GRID GAME RECEIPTS

By HENRY McLEMORE

(United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Although few games actually have been scheduled, the suggestion that college football be used to aid the unemployed was on the boom today.

The football idea which started in a sports writer's suggestion to the president command the Army and Navy eleven to play a post-season game with the proceeds to go to an unemployment fund has been favorably received in many sections of the country, and the end of the week may see a dozen or more of the leading elevens signed to meet for charity.

New York Volunteers

The movement here was given a great boost yesterday when New York university volunteered its eleven for a post-season charity game and asked Mayor Walker to name a committee of city officials and newspapermen to select an opponent, date and place.

Such a game, it was said, if properly handled probably would mean some half a million dollars for the unemployed. With Fordham reported as disinterested in a post-season game, Alabama, Colgate, and Utah are being mentioned as desirable foes for the Violets.

Word comes from St. Paul, Minn., that the undefeated St. Olaf eleven and North Dakota university may meet after the regular season for the benefit of the jobless. St. Olaf, it seems, is willing and anxious and if North Dakota is unavailable it is hoped that Marquette's strong team may be obtained.

May Transfer Big Game

With the Michigan university-Detroit game on the rocks because of a Big Ten ruling which forbids post-season games, Governor Green of Michigan yesterday asked authorities of Michigan State university to transfer the game, scheduled for East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 21, to the stadium at Ann Arbor with the added receipts to go to relief purposes.

The University of Chicago has volunteered to give its share of any extra profits of the Michigan game in Detroit, Nov. 22, to charity, retaining only the amount which might normally be expected if it were not a charity affair.

In Indianapolis, Cathedral and Shortridge high schools have agreed to turn over the proceeds of their annual Thanksgiving game to the city's unemployment relief. Even the players will pay their way into the field. The game is expected to swell the city fund $30,000.

In fact all of the powerful teams of the nation are taking on importance this week with the exception of Dartmouth who plays Alhambra, a small but undefeated college; Northwestern, engaging Indiana and Yale picking on Alfred.

Syracuse plays Penn State. That good Syracuse outfit which rose to the heights last week to the Brown machine will play Penn State at State college, Princeton meets Lehigh at Princeton and unbeaten Marquette will battle Iowa at Milwaukee.

Out there on the flowery slopes of the Pacific Stanford mingles with Washington at Palo Alto and there will be no blanket of carnations on the field when the battle is ended.

In the south in addition to titanic drama which "Bama's" big power house will unfold with Florida, the team that tied unbeaten Georgia Tech vs. Vanderbilt at Atlanta, Southern Methodist vs. Texas Aggies at Dallas, Baylor vs. Texas at Waco and Tulane vs. Auburn at New Orleans are carded.

Chicago must face Purdue at Chicago and Wisconsin may have a breather in South Dakota State at Madison. Missouri plays Iowa State at Columbia and Michigan State has North Dakota State at East Lansing.

CALIFORNIA BEAR HAS NEW TRICK TO SHOW

His nibs, "Nibs" Price, has taught the shift movement to the California backs and linesmen this season. This new Bar trick will be exhibited at the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday when the Berkeley boys play the University of Southern California.

SATURDAY GRID CARD FULL OF REAL CLASSICS

By COPELAND C. BURG

(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Like a giant dragon with a mean and hungry look in his eye, as though searching for bigger and better victims, old man football today climbed atop the tallest college spire and in a vociferous shriek heard from New York to California zoomed the message—"You ain't seen nothing yet!"

And then in ill-concealed delight, the relentless and ever-seeking wrecker of the high and mighty announced next Saturday's football card, topped by such classics as Notre Dame vs. Penn at Philadelphia, Georgia vs. New York university in New York, Michigan vs. Harvard at Cambridge and Alabama vs. Florida at Gainesville.

Columbia vs. Colgate. With hardly less glee the old gentleman who collects his toll willingly every Saturday afternoon smacked his lips over the clashes and bringing together Columbia and Colgate in New York, Pitt and Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh, University of Southern California and Fordham at Detroit, Army and Illinois in New York City and Navy and Ohio State in Baltimore.

In fact all of the powerful teams of the nation are taking on importance this week with the exception of Dartmouth who plays Alhambra, a small but undefeated college; Northwestern, engaging Indiana and Yale picking on Alfred.

A diminutive sophomore youth of less than 160 pounds has eased the pain of the passing of Benny Lom. He is Henry Schaldach, a halfback of no previous football experience, who stepped into the triple-threatening role from which the great Lom graduated.

Price's optimistic view as the season opened gave coast critics the impression that the Golden Bear would be unmanageable this fall. They readily concurred in this optimism after seeing the wealth of material which included 16 lettermen: Ends Avery, Bartlett, Thornton and Whyte; Tackles Bican, Cahn and Timmerman; Guards Beckett and Captain Handy; Centers Beckmeyer and Medanich; Quarterbacks Griffiths and Kirwin; Halfbacks Garrity and Hickingbotham and Fullback Gill.

It is evident, now, that His Nibs and the experts overlooked the shift and effect a new style of offense would have on his group of veterans. Likewise, they must have underrated Washington, where Jimmy Phelan now holds forth, and Washington State. At any rate, the Golden Bear has been soundly whipped by the Husky, the Cougar and that ex-collegiate aggregation of Olympic club gridders.

Victorio Campolo, the South American highboy, may be big, but his brother, Valentine, aged 20, stands half an inch taller and weighs 230 pounds. Valentine also has begun a fighting career, having been matched several times in his native Argentina.

(NEA Service Sports Writer)

Some of you probably have wondered why the Golden Bear of California hibernated so early this fall—why he hasn't been out on several successful forays into coast football camps. The truth is that the fuzzy fella has not retired for the season; he's not even drowsy. It so happens that he's only a bit confused over a new trick given him for the first time by C. M. (Nibs) Price, his chief trainer.

"It may cost us a couple of games or so during the first part of the season," said His Nibs early in the fall, "but when that shift gets to clicking properly, it'll be worth our while. We'll be shifting like a bank president's town car when the important games roll around."

It might be well at this point to make the announcement that November is here and the important games loom just around the corner. If we take His Nibs at His Nibs' word, California will go out and win herself a couple of Big Three football classics from Southern California Saturday and Stanford Nov. 22.

Despite a few murmurs to the contrary, the Andy Smith system is still in vogue at Berkeley. The new shifting step Price has put into his line and backfield this fall is a variation of the "one-two-three-four" made famous by Rockne at Notre Dame.

From the very beginning, Price has sacrificed speed in the interests of accuracy and power in the movement. His aim has been rhythm, rather than momentum. But now, with five performances behind him, the Golden Bear snaps into his new trick with speed and grace. He can count up to four and make the accompanying motions—and this announcement bodes no good for either the Trojans or Cardinals.

Troy, Bruins Quarrel Over Contest Date

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Shouts of a break in athletic relations between Southern California and U. C. L. A. glimmered to a whisper today, and probably won't be heard again until December 5, when graduate managers of Pacific Coast conference teams meet to plan their 1931 schedules.

The rumor of the break started when U. C. L. A. declined an invitation to open the Trojan schedule next year, on the grounds that by mid-season the Bruins would be in better shape to give Troy a real battle.

U. S. C. countered with a statement that its mid-season dates were filled with big games against California, Stanford, Washington, Washington State and Notre Dame.

GLENDALE TILT MAY BE PLAYED SATURDAY A. M.

Two important changes in the Santa Ana junior college conference football schedule were imminent today.

One had to do with the Santa Ana-Glendale game, to be played here this week, and the other with the Santa Ana-Fullerton "gigantic" later in the season.

The Glendale joust originally was scheduled for Saturday afternoon. Officials of the two schools were in communication today, however, endeavoring to switch the game either to Saturday morning or Friday afternoon so as to not conflict with the University of Southern California-California game in the Los Angeles coliseum Saturday afternoon.

Bill Cook, Santa Ana coach, told Sam Tension, director of the Glendale squad, that the Glendale would be willing to play either Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. Tension's reply was expected today.

Fullerton Date Advanced. The annual "big game" with Fullerton was to have been played on Thanksgiving day at Fullerton but, because the high schools, of the same cities meet here the same day, athletic officials of the two colleges advanced their game to November 22, the Saturday before Thanksgiving day. This will be the last game of the season for the Glendale unless there is a playoff for the conference championship and they are fortunate enough to be one of the participants concerned.

Cook is dissatisfied with the physical condition of his players and has given notice that the practices for the next three games will be longer, harder and more intensive. Glendale, Los Angeles and Fullerton are all strong teams and the Padres will have to defeat all three to retain their first place tie with Compton.

Garlock Loss Costly. The loss of Wayne Garlock, star back, who was injured in the Phoenix game and will be out for at least two weeks, has altered Cook's plans and he is rather puzzled as to a backfield combination. "Shorty" Privett and Orville Schuchardt are fighting for quarterback. Clarence ("What-A-Man") Hapes, big fullback, is being pressed closely by Bert Wilkins, Howard Rose and Kiyoshi Shigekawa. Halfbacks Franklin Van Meter and Melvin Beatty are not absolutely sure of their jobs either. Garlock was recently shifted to fullback and Emmett Seacord to halfback.

Garlock was named on the second all-conference team last season. A small blood vessel in his leg was broken at Phoenix when he was tackled out of bounds and struck a corner of the players' bench. He was taken off the team train at Colton and rushed to Santa Ana by automobile, where he was given treatment and taken home.

Tunney Asks That Suit Be Dismissed

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Justice Peter A. Hatting is expected to rule tomorrow on Gene Tunney's motion to dismiss the $500,000 suit of Timothy J. Mara.

After the justice ruled favorably on a motion dismissing Billy Gibson, manager of the retired heavyweight champion, as co-defendant, Emory R. Buckner, Tunney's counsel, argued that in joint defendant suits the verdict must be against all or none of the defendants.

FOOTBALL BRIEFS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—With praises for the rejuvenated University of California football team which roundly spanked Montana, Coach Howard Jones sent his University of Southern California Trojans through a stiff workout today against Bear plays witnessed by him on his scouting trip last Saturday.

"Tay" Brown, tackle, injured in the Washington State game, and again hurt in the Denver skirmish last Saturday, was shelved today by Jones in favor of Ernie Smith, who had just about clinched a first string berth anyway.

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—Encouraged by the showing against the Montana Grizzlies, California prepared today for a week of stiff practice for Saturday's game with the University of Southern California. Although the Trojans were still favorites to win, California's chances looked far brighter than they did a week ago.

PALO ALTO, Nov. 4.—Stanford's eleven, with the tough Washington game staring it in the face, settled down to hard practice today and a test of some "Pop" Warner. Despite the recent 13-0 S. C. episode, the Cardinals still have faith in their ability to down Jimmy Phelan's Huskies.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—The names of 32 members of the football squad which will leave tomorrow for Eugene, where U. C. L. A. meets the University of Oregon next Saturday, were announced today by Coach Bill Spaulding.

For the first time since the season opened, Spaulding is not worried about injuries. Dick Maulhaupt, stellar end, who had an ailing foot, saw little action against Stanford last week, and is pronounced fit for the encounter.

U. S. ENGINEERS FIGHT JUNGLE IN NICARAGUA

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(INS)—

Amid primitive barbaric surroundings which a reincarnated slave of prehistoric Egypt would find quite familiar, American soldiers of our regular army, many of them from homes in New York and New Jersey and some accompanied by their wives and children, today toil under a fierce tropical sun to transform the 400-year-old dream of Columbus and other Old World explorers into a twentieth century reality.

Down in Nicaragua, where a battalion of U. S. army engineers under Major Dan I. Sultan, of Oxford, Miss., is surveying a route through the jungles for the proposed canal, a returned member of the teeming thousands and hundreds of thousands who sweltered under the broiling sun of the Nile Delta to do the bidding of Sesostris, legendary Pharaoh, and his corporal successors, would notice little change.

For one thing he would soon discover that the sun has lost none of its power and he would find mankind at his age-old task of attempting to improve upon nature, still digging ditches to carry water so that boats laden with merchandise might find shorter paths between oceans.

Many of the methods of work, particularly in the transportation of materials, would be "old stuff." The reincarnated slave would step confidently to the head of one of the numerous teams of oxen and familiarly urge the lumbering beasts forward. The oxen might find his Egyptian language somewhat strange, but that would not surprise the animals. They find the forceful language of the mule-skinner of the American army engineers quite unfamiliar but oddly effective.

The fact that ox carts are being used in some cases as the only available method of transportation by the army engineers is but one of the many fascinating facts connected with the work of the battalion that has been on duty in Nicaragua since last fall. In the movement of one company, with its material from Granada to Brindley, recently, to begin field work on the western division of the route of the proposed canal, had there been every type of modern land conveyance available, ox carts would still have been the only type that could have traversed the country.

This composite battalion, composed of one company from Panama, another from Fort Humphreys, Va., and a third from Dupont, Del., has developed an esprit that upholds the best traditions of the quite enviable record set by the army engineers.

Its members recognize the romance of their work and its historic significance. They realize they are assisting to a second solution of the problem of international commerce that dates from the fall of Constantinople, in 1453, into the hands of the Turks; what Columbus and Balboa dreamed of; what Cortez and Alvaro de Saavedra Ceron actually planned; what concerned every European nation for over four hundred years and our own country for a century, these American soldiers are turning into an accomplished fact.

They grin at the story told of Philip II of Spain, who, perplexed at the doubtful reports of his exploring parties, sought comfort and counsel from the Dominican friars. Excellent theologians, the friars were port scientists and in their greater perplexity consulted the scriptures. At that they triumphantly returned to King Philip and showed him the verse: "What God hath joined together, let no man put asunder." To Philip this was adequate authority for him to cease all attempts to separate the two continents.

Jury Selected To Try Schroeder On Charge of Theft

The first jury from the new panel was chosen yesterday to act in the trial of Leo M. Schroeder, charged with grand theft. The defendant, it is alleged, obtained stock certificates valued at $2000 from T. E. Seeman, of Laguna Beach, through misrepresentation and fraud, on August 10.

Testimony yesterday was that the defendant represented himself as another man who had sold the stock to Seeman, and phoned that it was a good time to sell and he was sending a messenger to get the stock. Seeman, however, obtained the license number of the car in which the "messenger" arrived, and in this way traced the man who got his stock.

Members of the jury were Mrs. Maude Williams, William Maurer, S. H. McCracken, W. E. Gates, Mrs. Gertrude Catching, G. G. Beckman, Robert Appel, Mrs. Blanche L. Borchart, W. H. Keiser, William Falkenstein, Charles J. Trembley and Mrs. Nell Winslow. The case was continued until November 6.

NEVER RUBBED IN

Since Carl Snively accepted the coaching duties at Bucknell university four seasons ago, no team has won football games from him two successive years. Washington and Jefferson, with a victory one year and a tie the next, came nearest to spoiling Snively's record.

Snowdrift

CAKES mix more quickly with Snowdrift. It's so easy to work with... so easy to spoon and so easy to blend.

The Wesson Oil people cream Snowdrift for you. It is ready to mix smoothly and easily with the other ingredients of your baking... just a few quick stirs of the spoon.

Snowdrift is made from an oil as delicious as a fine salad oil... and nothing else. Sealed pails bring it to you as sweet and fresh as the day it was made. Warm or cold weather doesn't change the creaminess of Snowdrift. It's just as friendly and easy to mix in December as it is in June.

School Chief At Spanish Village

SAN CLEMENTE, Nov. 4.—Sam H. Cohn, of Sacramento, deputy supervisor of public instruction, was in San Clemente over the week end and inspected the new proposed San Clemente school district. This district will embrace all lands within the city limits of San Clemente. At present this city is part of the Santa Ana school district.

Hearing on the formation of the new district will be held before the board of supervisors in Santa Ana December 9. The findings will go to the state department of education for final decision. Should a new district be formed, Ed Barlett and Den Acres, members of the Santa Ana board will automatically become members of the new district and one new member elected.

Babies GAIN when bowels are strong, regular

Baby isn't gaining his six or eight ounces a week? Constipation may be the reason. It is behind most of a baby's troubles. Colic, fretfulness, Gas. It keeps Baby from accepting or retaining the proper amount of nourishment.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is good for any baby. It is a prescription for the bowels written by a famous doctor—one who attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby—a record believed unique in American medical history.

Half a teaspoonful of this simple prescription often relieves occasional troubles like that in a few hours. If Baby is bottle-fed or for any other reason is regularly constipated, give half a teaspoonful daily until the little fellow is happy; gaining as he should.

The pleasant, syrupy flavor of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin commends it to children. Its gentle action makes it ideal for women. It doesn't sicken. It cannot gripe. So it is a blessing to elderly people. And it is thoroughly effective for the most robust man. All drug stores have the big bottles.

TUBBS GIVES TALK ON PEST CONTROL

Editor's Note: The talk by D. W. Tubbs, of which an outline is printed below, will be published in full on the farm page of The Register next Saturday.

D. W. Tubbs, deputy agricultural commissioner of Orange county, talked last night over KREG on "Biological Control of Injurious Insects."

"From time to time we read articles, usually with glaring headlines, telling people who live in this world that they are engaged in a war in which they are bound to lose—that insects eventually will be victorious over man," said Tubbs. "This might be true," he continued, "if man were not endowed with the power of reasoning."

Tubbs outlined various methods of controlling numerous insect pests and declared that "All people engaged in plant growing, especially the orchardist, should become familiar with the various pests affecting their particular crop and also the natural enemies of such pests."

Fire Destroys Country Club Near Wintersburg Today

EXPLOSION IN KITCHEN STOVE STARTS BLAZE

The clubhouse of the Long Beach Country club at Springdale in the southwestern part of Orange county was completely destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock this morning, the flames starting from an explosion in a stove in the kitchen.

The loss was estimated at $25,000. Books valued at $1000 were placed in the club library last week by the new manager of the establishment, James Ellis. All of the furnishings were burned.

The clubhouse was erected about five years ago, the land having been purchased from E. Ray Moore. Workmen have been repairing the water lines in the district and as a result volunteer fire fighters found that they had no water pressure.

The building burned for an hour and a half. Shrubs surrounding the clubhouse were not damaged.

It was reported today that the club members will erect a new clubhouse on the site in the near future. Walter Leecraft, of Long Beach, is president of the country club.

VETERANS ARE TO BE GUESTS AT RIVERSIDE

Members of Jack Fisher chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World war, will be the guests of the chapter at Riverside, Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Odd Fellows hall, 3902 Main street, Riverside.

A special feature of this meeting is to be the presentation of the National Colors by the Daughters of Union Veterans to the Riverside DAV unit. Representatives from Los Angeles, Glendale, Long Beach, San Bernardino and Ontario will witness this ceremony, besides the local delegation headed by H. O. Rasmussen, commander of the Jack Fisher chapter.

Coming events on the DAV calendar include participation in the Armistice day parade at Anaheim next Tuesday. Members will ride in autos, as is their custom in the past, but final orders will be issued to all DAV members as soon as received from the Armistice day committee.

The regular meeting of November 12th will be held jointly with the DAV auxiliary which is to honor all Gold Star Mothers of Orange county on that date, with an appropriate program.

Dr. Peryl Magill Resumes Practice

Resuming her osteopathic practice after an absence from the field in this city for three years, Dr. Peryl Magill this week is establishing her offices in the Dr. W. A. Flood building on North Broadway. Yesterday was set as the opening day. She shares reception rooms with Dr. H. J. Howard, and is fully equipped to continue her work in the most modern manner.

A graduate of the Los Angeles College of Osteopathic Physicians, Dr. Magill began her practice in this city in 1913. She is an active member of the American Legion auxiliary.

300 At H. B. Monday For Church Rally

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 4.—An address by the Rev. George Taubman, pastor of the First Christian church of Long Beach, closed the program of the rally of Christian churches of four counties held Monday at Huntington Beach and attended by 300 churchmen and many pastors. Churches of Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange and Los Angeles counties were represented. Women of the Christian church of this city served a noonday dinner to the visitors and all attending the rally.

Pastors of Christian churches in Los Angeles, Anaheim, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Ana and Long Beach were on the program for addresses. The purpose of the rally was to bring the pastors and leaders of the four counties into closer touch but all sessions of the rally program were open to the public.

PARTY JUMBLE IN WET DRIVE HIT BY YOUNG

In an address delivered over KREG last night Milton K. Young, Democratic candidate for governor of California, recalled the now well known coalition between Mayor James Rolph, wet candidate for the same post, and Martin Welch, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

"The cat is out of the bag," said Young, in referring to this jumble of parties in order to put over a wet program in California.

Young declared that he did not think Senator Frank Merriam, Republican dry candidate for lieutenant governor, knew of this coalition when he announced that he would support Rolph in his race for governor.

The Democratic candidate expressed warm appreciation to The Register and J. F. Burke for support given him during his campaign. He declared that The Register had been the bulwark of his support and that it had been quoted and its influence had been felt throughout the state.

Pointing out that in the north there usually was a solid vote, Young declared that there are enough ballots in Southern California to elect any candidate the voters wish to unite on. He also declared that the Southland is entitled to place an executive in the governor's chair, inasmuch as the north has had a preponderance of governors in the last 28 years.

Young was introduced by Head as a candidate who defied his party leaders to make the campaign on a dry platform, whose integrity, sobriety and ability had never been questioned, and a man for whom citizens could vote without being ashamed of themselves.

In his address, the dry candidate commented on the statement of Rolph that he would carry the same kind of government to the state that he had given San Francisco, and that the police commissioner there was now attempting to get a clause in the city charter that would permit the licensing of saloons. The election of Rolph, whom he characterized as notoriously wet and mayor of the wettest city in the state, would be a great argument for the wets, he averred. Young also used the plea for election of a man from the southern part of the state, quoting editorials from Harry Chandler, urging this.

In speaking of the stand of The Register in this campaign, Young said, "I'll never forget the substantial help received from J. F. Burke and the Santa Ana Register. It was first to my support and has been widely quoted throughout the entire state. It has helped the cause tremendously."

YOUNG CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN IN SANTA ANA

A crowd that filled the auditorium of the educational unit of the First Christian church last night heard the closing campaign message of Milton K. Young, Democratic candidate for governor, who made the race on a dry platform. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Men's Community Bible class, and was called, said W. B. Martin, class president, because the class is vitally interested in moral issues, and in an effort to impress upon voters the importance of expressing their convictions at the polls.

Horace C. Head, Santa Ana attorney, chairman of the Orange county Young for governor club, presided at the meeting.

The Rev. U. E. Harding, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, addressed the crowd briefly, declaring that tremendous issues were involved. He asserted that Mayor James Rolph's friends and backers were crying "party loyalty" with one breath and in the next urging the support of Martin Welch, the Democratic and wet candidate for lieutenant governor.

Another speaker urging support of Young and the dry issues, was the Rev. Thatcher, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church, South, of Anaheim, who lived in San Francisco for nine years and said he held his family in such esteem that he couldn't vote for Rolph.

Young was introduced by Head as a candidate who defied his party leaders to make the campaign on a dry platform, whose integrity, sobriety and ability had never been questioned, and a man for whom citizens could vote without being ashamed of themselves.

JULIA LATHROP CAFETERIA TO BE DEDICATED

The new $40,000 cafeteria of the Julia Lathrop Junior high school will be formally opened with a fathers' and mothers' banquet at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening. J. G. White, director of vocational guidance of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A., has been chosen as the speaker of the evening, and a short musical program will be given by the "Mother Singers" of the school. Miss Edith Cornell and Frances Beeson are to sing a duet. White is said to be one of the outstanding speakers on educational problems in Southern California and he will speak on "After School, What and How."

The banquet is to be served under the direction of Mrs. Dan Crozier, and reservations are to be made with Mrs. G. E. Moran, treasurer of the school P-T. A., or with H. G. Nelson, principal of the school. Mrs. M. Geeting, president of the P-T. A., is assisting with arrangements for the event.

The cafeteria will seat 300 persons and as there are 1400 persons of students, those who are expecting to attend will be obliged to make reservations early. Nelson pointed out this morning.

The cafeteria is equipped with the most modern appliances and parents will be given an opportunity of inspecting the new building. An outside service is to be maintained for students who do not wish to enter the luncheon lines, of which there are to be two, when the cafeteria is opened to students, Nelson stated.

VIOLINIST TO ENTERTAIN FOR BREAKFASTERS

According to Luke Miller, chairman and Dr. M. M. Bryte, members of the Santa Ana Breakfast club will be given a real treat Thursday morning at the St. Ann's inn, in the way of good clean entertainment.

Miss Georgia Belle Walton, one of Santa Ana's premier musical artists, will entertain with Miss Ruth Armstrong as accompanist. Miss Walton will give several selections on the violin.

Santa Ana Breakfasters will be the first club to listen to C. Coutts, vice president and general manager of the Westco company, Ltd., manufacturers of domestic and imported marbles. The Westco is a new industry for Santa Ana.

As an added attraction, the Hawaiian Duo will give selections on the Hawaiian string instruments. This number is the Bill and Owen Hawaiian Duo. President B. Z. McKinney urged the members and their friends to be at the St. Ann's inn promptly at 7:30 a. m.

Norman Snow, Park Roper and D. C. Clanton will make report on the evening turkey dinner for Breakfasters and their women friends to be held at the inn some time in November.

Seek To Condemn Land for Street Widening Project

Condemnation proceedings involving some 145 parcels of land in connection with widening or opening up certain streets and alleys in that community was filed yesterday in superior court. The complaint carries three pages of names of defendants in the action.

The map accompanying the complaint shows that it is proposed to open up alleys in Rogers addition; widen Legion street and part of Glenneyre street, Laguna avenue, Ocean avenue and third street; open and extend part of Ramona avenue; and acquire rights of way in Laguna Terrace.

The court is asked to determine the interest of persons claiming an interest in the parcels specified and to determine the value of the property south to be condemned.

FIFTY FLOATS TESTS PLANNED TO PARADE ON FOR ENTRANCE ARMISTICE DAY TO WEST POINT

Among the 50 or more floats already assured for the "Pageant of States" which will feature the annual Orange county Armistice day observance to be held in Anaheim this year, will be at least six from Santa Ana, according to Ray E. Smith, of Anaheim, chairman of the committee in general charge of arrangements.

The Santa Ana post of the American Legion has selected Iowa as the theme for a float which the Legionnaires in charge assert will vie favorably with any in the pageant.

Noted for their originality, the Longfellow club of the Santa Ana Junior college may be expected to produce something novel with the state of Maine as the motif. The designers refuse to indicate whether they have taken the Maine pine trees, or equally famous Stein Song, as their theme.

Santa Ana Junior college chose Wisconsin as a motif for the float to be entered by the student body. The Auxiliary of Calumet camp, United Spanish War veterans, with headquarters in Santa Ana, has selected Tennessee and will strive to do credit to the part that state has played in the history of the nation, in their float.

The Statue of Liberty is to be the theme of the float entered by the 40 at 8.

Santa Ana Rotary club has joined with the other Rotary clubs in entering a float to depict the Constitution; and, Santa Ana council, Knights of Columbus, together with Anaheim council, has taken Illinois for a float motif.

Gold Star Mothers of Santa Ana will ride in decorated cars in the first division, and the members of the G. A. R. now living in this city, also will ride in the parade.

Santa Ana's Municipal band, led by Director D. C. Clanton; Santa Ana's crack high school band, and Santa Ana post's celebrated drum and bugle corps, will help the marchers keep in step.

Upwards of 75,000 persons are expected to see the pageant.

FashionsLovely Setting Was Given Wedding Vows
Of Saturday

Enhanced by a profusion of yellow and orchid chrysanthemums, the upstairs parlors of Rose Arbor Inn provided a charming setting for a wedding of Saturday evening when Miss Oleta Myracle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Myracle of Orange and Willis M. Hulen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hulen of this city, exchanged marriage vows. The Rev. Franklin H. Minck of the First Christian church of Orange officiated.

Before an improvised altar of greenery the young couple spoke their vows. The bride was lovely in a fitted gown of ivory satin, and carried a cluster of creamy yellow roses. Her long veil with its becoming little cap, was caught to her hair by a clinging cluster of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Miss Reva Myracle, as maid of honor, charming in an orchid satin frock and carrying a delicate bouquet of sweet-peas in harmonizing tints. Robert Law accompanied Mr. Hulen as best man. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Lois Allen.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents presided at a beautifully appointed dinner served in a downstairs room where baby chrysanthemums and small wax were combined to form an attractive floral setting. Slender yellow tapered glassed the table where the tiered wedding cake was placed and cut by the new Mrs. Allen. About twenty relatives and intimate friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulen are making their home at 183 North Waverly place in Orange. Mrs. Hulen being employed in that city. She is a graduate of Orange high school. Her husband is an employee of S. Hill and Son in Santa Ana, and attended the local high school.

Summer in Mexico Was
Theme of Talk for
B. and P. W.

Santa Ana Business and Professional Women last night were privileged to join that lengthening list of service clubs of the city, whose members have been served one of the admirable dinners prepared by teachers of Fremont school, and have enjoyed the illuminating talk on Mexico presented by Mrs. Edith Ritter, principal of the school.

The affair was planned by Mrs. Golden Weston, member of the November social committee, and whose work as head of the Americanization department in the schools, made her especially interested in bringing schools and service clubs into closer contact. Nearly 40 women were present to share the hospitable evening, and enjoy the hospitality of Fremont teachers, as well as the commodious new building. Mrs. Ritter, who spent the summer months in travel in Mexico, gave a most interesting account of her trip and of conditions in that country, supplementing the talk with lantern slides from pictures which she had taken. Her work with the Mexican children of this city extends into their homes, and indeed its ramifications go much further, so that her trip into the very heart of Mexico, perhaps yielded her far more keenly and personally interested in the people.

Adding charm to the evening were the songs in both English and Spanish by five young Mexican girls of the school, with their teacher and director, Mrs. Carson Smith, at the piano.

Preceding the dinner and program, Mrs. Marshall Northcross, B. and P. W., president, led a short business meeting during which the attendance was called to the public card party to be given Friday night at 8 o'clock in St. Ann's inn. While many reservations already have been made for this, additional guests may be accommodated and Mrs. Martha Whitson and her committee are hoping for a record-breaking crowd. All proceeds will go towards the expenses of maintaining a youth in the Orange County Health camp.

Reservations among club members were also asked for the district board meeting to be held Saturday in Anaheim. Those who have not yet signed to go, should telephone Miss Lena Thomas, reservation chairman. The annual Thanksgiving dinner of the club, which has always been made a particularly joyous occasion by R. L. Bieby, manager of St. Ann's inn, will be held this year on Monday, November 17, and should it be the final affair of the kind to be held by members in their customary meeting place, a 100 percent attendance is requested. Beginning with Monday, December 1, the B. and P. W. will meet in the Ketter cafe.

In planning for last night's pleasant affair, Mrs. Weston was assisted by her co-workers on the November committee, Miss Lula B. Finley, Miss Lena Thomas and Mrs. Marie Fowler.

Treasure Hunt Proves
Merry Finale to College Party

As a fitting celebration of the Halloween season, Miss Kathleen Covern with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Laguna Beach, gave a jolly treasure hunt and costume party Saturday night to a group of friends from Santa Ana junior college and elsewhere. Halloween games appropriate to the season were played at the home of the Wilcoxs until at 11:30 o'clock when the guests started on the treasure hunt. This ended at an old deserted and "spooky" house in Temple Hills where the hungry young people found hot-dogs, doughnuts and coffee awaiting them around a huge bonfire.

Prizes for the best costumes were given to Robert Donskin, who also was the lucky person to find the treasure, and to Miss Esther Egan. These prizes consisted of different types of cats appropriate to the season.

Those celebrating the closing of the Halloween season were Miss Esther Egan, Miss Mildred Pence, Miss Hazel Johnson of Laguna Beach; Miss Wanda Sumter and Irvin Couse of Santa Ana junior college; Robert Donskin of Los Angeles; Everett Smith, Russell Hind and George Rice of Redlands University and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox and Miss Kathleen Covern of Laguna Beach.

Day Nursery Board
Presents First of Party Series

Establishing their series of card parties as among the pleasantest hospitable club events of the year, members of the Ebell Day Nursery board yesterday attained a pleasant financial success as well when presenting the first of the monthly series of bridge afternoons in Ebell clubhouse.

Entertaining with quite as much charm as though they were hostesses at a private party, Mrs. Edward C. Erwin, Mrs. Perry Lewis and Mrs. James L. Allen conceived the trio responsible for this opening event, and were stationed at the entry to the clubhouse to extend a cordial greeting to their guests, thus emphasizing the friendly note of the afternoon.

Guests were privileged to choose either contract or auction bridge and also either pivoting or progressing. General prize for high score was presented Mrs. Robert G. Tutthill, Ebell president, who received silk stockings as her reward. Secondary prizes were entirely different in nature, for they were marmalade jars of various sizes. Marchant with second high score, received a generous box of the candied grapefruit which is one of the confections for which Mrs. Lewis is famed. Mrs. Anna Morton, Dr. Mary E. Wright and Mrs. E. D. Kilbourne were others sharing in the pleasant gift phase of the afternoon.

Play was enjoyed in the lounge and section rooms and at the conclusion of the afternoon guests remained seated at the small tables for the enjoyment of tea and dainty little ice box cookies.

The Day Nursery board is composed of Mrs. W. W. Kays, chairman; Mrs. Perry E. Lewis, Mrs. Edward C. Erwin, Mrs. M. C. Williams, Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mrs. James L. Allen, Mrs. C. E. Blagcow, Mrs. Lena Gulick Hewitt and Mrs. O. H. Umberham. Most of the members were present to assist the hostesses.

This group of Ebell members held one of the most enjoyable of informal affairs late last week, when all assembled in the clubhouse for a covered dish luncheon, and to open the array of packages resulting from last Monday's unique "admission" to the general meeting of the society. Every clubwoman had been asked to bring a length of new material or old garments capable of being made over, as her ticket of admission, the clothing to go to the Day Nursery board to be used in its storeroom and for its patrons.

Entertaining Speaker
Was Entertained By
D. A. R. Chapter

Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch was hostess to the Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday afternoon when 40 members were in attendance for the November meeting of the local chapter.

An interesting guest and speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. V. Kachmarsky, organizer and director of the Ukrainian-Russian Civic center in the Boyle Heights district of Los Angeles. Being the daughter and the wife of Christian ministers, Mrs. Kachmarsky has labored since a young girl to aid in uplifting the lives of her less fortunate fellow countrymen.

Stating that many Russian people now in America are without the services of their church, the speaker explained the inability of most of them to organize for themselves by the fact that they were accustomed to having their churches organized and supported by the Russian government. Claiming that the bolshevik revolution was not a popular movement of the Russian people but was instigated and directed by the outcasts and discontents of many nations, the speaker made a plea that aid and sympathetic understanding be given the many Russian people who are refugees from their native land because they are not of the bolshevik faith.

Urging the inherent goodness of heart of many who are without education but who have some just appreciation of our country and no wish to destroy it as have some others, Mrs. Kachmarsky voiced the sentiment "If one has been a real patriot to one's own country one will be a real patriot to one's adopted country."

The business session dealt primarily with the Americanism work of the D. A. R. Reports show that the general society had expended $10,378 in this work during the past year. The field of activity has expanded greatly since it began a number of years ago at the suggestion of officials of the federal government who desired the co-operation of the D. A. R. in social welfare work among the immigrants at Ellis Island, N. Y.

Schools for the foreign-born children and evening classes for adult foreigners as are provided by the public schools in California are conducted entirely by the D. A. R. in several states. Aid is given to four schools where promising young foreign born students are prepared for teaching their own people who come to this country. The recent appointment of Mrs. John Clarkson as chairman of the Americanism committee for California has served to stimulate the interest of the chapter in the work.

Mrs. Henry W. Guthrie reported plans of the chapter committee for local work and Mrs. Elsie Spurgeon requested donations for a Christmas box to be sent to the immigrant station on

County Music Teachers
Launch Season With Dinner Program

Opening their season with a most successful function, members of the Orange County Music Teachers' association met at Ketter's cafe last night for an enjoyable dinner, and had the privilege of entertaining and hearing Max Swarthout of Los Angeles, president of the state association.

After his greeting by the local members, he spoke of the proposal of a bill for state credentials for the private teacher, and a discontinuance of the local city taxes, a measure which he hoped members would vote for.

Following the dinner and address, the members repaired to the home of Miss Leonora Tompkins, 711 South Sycamore street, where Madame Welma Sauvignoul, who is devoting a visit to the county to taking a few classes in advanced piano, gave an admirable program. The guest artist is a graduate of the Stuttgart conservatory in Germany and has concentrated extensively in Europe and the United States, playing with both Denver and St. Louis Symphony orchestras in this country.

She included in her numbers last night, the minor sonata by Brahms, played with wonderful musicianship as was the famous Revolutionary Etude of Chopin, which she did so magnificently which she was compelled to repeat it for the gifted musicians who were assembled to hear her.

Her other numbers included a Chopin g-opus with the big A flat major Polonaise, E major Etude, C sharp minor Scherzo and Berceuse; two Brahms numbers, the E flat major Rhapsodie and a spirited E major Intermezzo, and as a finale, the Wanderer Fantasy of Schubert. The assembly of musicians and music lovers agreed that it was a rare treat to have an artist of her caliber and her rare simplicity, in her midst.

During the remainder of the evening, the guests shared the lively conversation of musical matters and enjoyed the dainty refreshments served by Miss Tompkins with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Tompkins.

Christmas Seals Were Folded Last Night

Native Daughters of the Golden West enjoyed a profitable session last evening when they met with Mrs. Clara Gerken at 1701 North Bush street to fold Christmas seals. Mrs. Jaunita Seidel was co-hostess. Red, white and yellow chrysanthemums adorned the room.

When 2500 seals were folded Mrs. Olive Seidel was awarded a prize for accomplishing the most work. Mrs. Mary West and Mrs. Alice Rogers received gifts as second and low folders. A social time followed, with some of the members offering extemporaneous piano selections. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

About 25 were present. The next session will be held Thursday of this week when Mrs. Margaret Dickinson will be hostess at an all-day affair in her home in Balboa.

Visiting Cousins Were Incentive For Party

A merry party of recent date was that given by Billy Holzknecht, young son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Holzknecht, 1070 West Fifth street, as a compliment to a group of cousins from Magnolia, Miss., who have been guests for the past two weeks in his home.

The complimented guests were Miss Irma Purl, Miss Mary Purl, J. C. Millard and D. L. Purl, and a dozen young people were asked to meet them and enjoy an evening of music, merry games and contests. To complete the hospitality, Mrs. Holzknecht served appetizing refreshments as the evening drew to a close.

Executive Board of
A. A. U. W. Met With
Mrs. King

The executive board of the American Association of University Women met last night to perfect plans for the regular monthly meeting of that organization which falls on the second Thursday of the month. Those who were present for the meeting which was in the home of Mrs. Loyal King on Panoram Heights were Mrs. Harold Gorton, president, Mrs. Florence Lindholm, treasurer, Miss Lillian Dickson, vice president, Mrs. Ernest Byrne of Tustin, secretary; directors, Miss Anna Trythall, Mrs. Horace Scott and Mrs. Charles Brisco.

The following chairman of committees who were also included in the executive board at the last regular meeting of the organization were present to make reports: Miss Mary Safley, education chairman; Mrs. Edith Thatcher, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Robert Horn, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Ralph Livenspire, program chairman, and Mrs. King, chairman of international relations. Mrs. Horace Scott who is membership chairman is ready to answer any questions regarding qualifications for membership and expressed her assistance in particularly anxious to the meetings.

Plans were discussed for the Christmas party which will be held in Orange and probably in the hands of members of the American Association of University Women who are located in Orange.

The meetings in Santa Ana this year are being held in the Y.W.C.A. rooms, on Fifth street.

Local College Women Attend Conclave In Riverside

A round of social and business activities awaited Southern California junior college women who attended the second annual convention of Associate Women students of Southern California held over the week end in Riverside, among whom were five from the local institution including Mrs. Robert Northcross, dean, and Mrs. J. E. Kild, who was elected president.

Delegates from here were the Misses Marian Parsons, Neva McDonald, Ruth Gardner and Mary Todd Tate.

Serving as the first of the gatherings was a banquet at Glenwood Mission Inn Friday evening, followed by a formal dance. With Saturday morning came one of the most important meetings of the convention, with Dr. Agnes Fay Morgan, chairman of the department of household science at the University of California as the speaker. Her topic was "Shaping the College Curriculum to Meet the Needs of Present Day College Women."

At 11 o'clock Saturday morning came the business meeting, and at noon a round table discussion in which all the delegates participated. The Riverside Woman's club furnished the setting for the 1 o'clock luncheon in the afternoon, followed by a session of bridge. Two one-act plays which proved interesting were presented.

The concluding event of the convention was the tea held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the home of the dean of women of the Riverside junior college.

Last year's convention was held in Pasadena and the next one is scheduled to be held in El Centro.

Travel Section Met With Mrs. Gowen For Luncheon

An appetizing 1 o'clock luncheon was served members of the First Travel section of the Ebell society yesterday when they met with Mrs. J. E. Gowen at 928 Spurgeon street. Mrs. E. B. Smith assisted as co-hostess.

The delectable menu was served at small tables centered with small bouquets, lovely dahlias, the gift of Mrs. S. W. Stanley, were used in profusion throughout the rooms.

A business meeting early in the afternoon was followed by a discussion of her travels through Europe by Mrs. Sam Nau. Many were the pictures and souvenirs which she displayed to the 14 members present.

Cafeteria Dedication To Take Place Friday

Dedication of the new Julia Lathrop junior high school cafeteria will take place Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock when a banquet will be given there under the auspices of the school P.-T. A. It is expected that a number of Santa Anans will be interested in attending, according to Mrs. Virgil Clem of the P.-T. A.

J. C. White, director of vocational counseling of the Y. M. C. A. of Los Angeles, will be the speaker of the evening, using as his topic "After School, What and How?" Anyone interested is invited to make reservations to attend. A nominal fee will be charged.

Santa Ana Elks Plan
November Dance As Social Affair

November in Santa Ana Elksdom, promises many interesting features for the Brother Elks and one outstanding affair for their wives and sweethearts, according to the current number of "The Elk Horn" just off the press.

This anticipated social event will be in the week preceding the Thanksgiving holiday, on the night of Tuesday, November 18, and the clever form of admission upon presentation of a bundle of old clothing, will undoubtedly yield the Elks many garments with which to carry on their mid-winter charitable work.

The month's first meeting of the Elks will be Tuesday night, November 11, when the Boys' Glee club of Frances Willard junior high school, and the director, Miss Esther Jeanne Davis, will present the entertainment program in connection with the business session.

The final meeting on the 25th will feature initiation, and the visit of S. D. Carey, past exalted ruler of the Brayley lodge, and district deputy grand exalted ruler of California South, who will make his official inspection of the lodge. Fred Forgy, exalted ruler, and his staff of officers anticipate an unusually large attendance of members. Special entertainment is being planned, and refreshments will be served as a social feature.

Lovely Party Was Given to Honor Mrs. Marcell

Mrs. Ernest Marcell was honored at a charming party last evening when Mrs. R. W. Shill and Mrs. M. C. Wilson presided as hostesses in the latter's home at 1718 Greenleaf street. Pink and blue flowers adorned the rooms, and provided a lovely setting for the games of the evening.

In an interesting contest Miss Laura Dalquist won first prize, and Mrs. J. E. Kild was consoled. Dainty refreshments were served on individual trays, and immediately following the delectable course Mrs. Marcell was presented with a lovely array of gifts.

Those sharing the hospitality of Mrs. Shill and Mrs. Wilson were the honoree, Mrs. Marcell, and Mesdames J. E. Kild, A. S. Lee, Vern Williams, Roland Sandstrom, C. Hemson, Ducey Patterson, H. Ely, Audrey Dalquist, Clyde Johnson, Wilard Lake, Clyde Bassett, Frank Miller, H. O. Packard, Emma Christens, A. Stephenson, E. M. A Diet For a Woman Past 40

Between hours this week I am preparing a diet for a friend who finds herself gaining weight at an alarming rate, following a major operation. Some of her consoling female friends told her weight was one of the crosses she would have to bear after her operation, "especially at your age" (40 odd). What a lot of rot!

She is gaining weight because it hasn't dawned on her yet—that she is still eating at the same rate that she did when the ravages of her disease made an excessive energy rate necessary to keep going at all. In other words, she is now stoking a furnace full blast when it has already reached its maximum temperature for comfort, and now, it is my pleasure to teach her how to feed her body furnace so that her food will provide the necessary amount of energy units, keep her body at its proper weight, and gradually do away with the hated extra pounds.

Teaching a grown woman habits of discipline in eating is no light task let me tell you. This one will have to learn to soft-pedal her taste for pie and substitute unsugared fruit, and like it, but at that she isn't so badly off, for her diet allows her a wide latitude in choice, just as long as she stays away from the fat-making foods. Above all, I am impressing on her that no diet is a cure-all for overweight. Its results are comparable to the classic remark attributed to a noted evangelist, who, when asked if his converts stayed put, spiritually, answered thus: "Is a bath permanent?"

TODAY'S RECIPE
Quick Caramel Rolls
2 cups sifted flour
4 scant teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt

4 tablespoons lard

Milk to make soft dough

2 tablespoons soft butter

4 tablespoons brown sugar

1 teaspoon cinnamon

MIXTURE FOR CARAMEL

½ cup brown sugar

1-3 cup hot water

4 tablespoons butter

Measure out two cups of sifted flour, to it add the baking powder and salt, and sift into the mixing bowl. Cut the cold lard into the flour and mix to a soft dough with sweet milk (about two-thirds cupful). Turn onto a floured board and pat to a thin sheet. Spread with soft butter and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Roll up and cut off one-half inch slices, lay the slices in the caramel mixture and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Melt the sugar, water, and butter

for the caramel mixture and boil it three minutes. Pour into a buttered pan, place the filled rolls in the caramel and make as directed.

This recipe will make 18 small rolls, each with a calory value of

125. Practically all the ingredients here are of the energy making type,

so let your conscience, not your eyes, be your guide when you are faced by these so-good rolls for

Sunday morning breakfast.

'VIRTUOUS SIN' AT WEST COAST TODAY

Walter Huston, in what is called his greatest role, that of the general in the famous old story "The General," is now seen at the Fox West Coast theater. The name of the picture produced by Paramount is "The Virtuous Sin."

Some of the best acting the screen has produced this year is seen in "The General." The characters seem more real, the drama is more intense. Not since Emil Jannings has there loomed on the photoplay horizon in the sector where characterization is king a figure as impressive as Walter Huston.

Scored in a succession of good pictures, "Gentlemen of the Press," "The Lady Lies," the part of Trampas in "The Virginian" and the prominent part in "Abraham Lincoln," Huston is fast becoming the best known character star of the screen.

Kay Francis and Kenneth MacKenna have the two other important roles in the production. A story of love and war, "The Virtuous Sin" is sure to cause comment.

A Fox Movietone news reel, together with an all-talking comedy also is shown.

Co-Hostesses Presided At Charming Planned Halloween Party

Cleverly planned was a Halloween party of late last week when Miss Evangeline Wolford and Miss Gladys McDonald were hostesses in the latter's home at 1212 Orange avenue. Decorations featured the orange and black theme.

Games and stunts provided entertainment for the early part of the evening, with the "Death of Gunman Joe," a thrilling story read while the group assembled around a coffin. The concluding hours were devoted to dancing, and a delectable refreshment course climaxed the gala affair. Costume prizes were won by Miss Alene Columblini and Floyd Stovall.

Those present other than the hostesses, Miss McDonald and Miss Wolford, were the Misses Mary Elizabeth Gillespie, Frances Borchard, Alene Columblini, Nellie Columblini, Bernice Borchard, Rose Columblini, Messrs. Arthur Wakefield, Tony Kneipp, Dan Jerry, Erhard Hegeman, Vincent Borchard, John Maring, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stovall and Mr. and Mrs. Florian Eickott.

is the accompanist, and Miss Florine Pollock, soloist. Mrs. Clarence Nisson is the reader. Special numbers will be given by Miss Dorothy Westover, Miss Dorinda Donner and Miss Jean Dowds.

'LIFE OF PARTY' IS SEEN AT BROADWAY

That the life of a Hollywood extra is not always a life of hard knocks was definitely proven during the filming and recording of "The Life of the Party," Winnie Lightner's newest starring vehicle for Warner Brothers, which is now playing at the Fox Broadway theater.

For the filming of the horse race sequence more than one hundred extra players, were taken to Agua Caliente, Southern California's favorite Mexican resort, to play atmospheres.

During their three days' stay, they were housed and fed at the magnificent Caliente Hotel, enjoying privileges that would cost a pretty penny, and what's more—and being paid to stay there.

In addition to Miss Lightner the all star cast of "The Life of the Party" includes Irene Delroy, Jack Whiting, Charles Judels, Charles Butterworth and John Davidson. Roy Del Ruth directed.

Party Honors Shared By Three Brothers Saturday Night

A Halloween party for their sons, Lowell, Kenneth and Melvin Dart, was given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Dart when they entertained in their home at 2820 North Main street. The popular orange and black motif was evidenced throughout the home, and provided an appropriate setting for the games of the evening.

Guests were in costume, and prizes for the cleverest outfits were awarded Miss Evelyn Glanville and Donald Davis. Appetizing refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present, other than Mr. and Mrs. Dart and Kenneth, Lowell and Melvin were the Misses Delpha Wollett, Betty Adams, Evelyn Glanville, Jacqueline and Margaret Kneipp, Imogene Seavy, Eva and Mary Jean Batross, Louisa Potts and Tracy Dart. John and Benny Detweiler, Ray, Floyd and Billie Dunham, Martin Batross, Horace Codling, Paul and Ray Echols, Glenn Potts, Dixie Hammond, Charles Bell, Donald Hall, Donald Davis and Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Batross, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis and Miss Ina Dart.

THE GENERAL

Walter Huston, who plays the part of the general in "The Virtuous Sin," which is now playing at the Fox West Coast theater.

COSTA MESA

COSTA MESA, Nov. 4.—Considerable acreage has been sold here and a number of new people have come in.

Mrs. Mary Hall, widow of George Hall, pioneer, of Wilson street, sold two acres on the west end of her five-acre tract to C. K. Crawford, of Los Angeles.

Another pioneer, E. F. Shade, of West Hamilton street, sold one and a half acres with a frontage of 208 feet on Hamilton street between Fairview avenue and Anaheim street, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Iverson, recently of Iowa. Mr. Iverson is an employee of the Shell Oil company and spent the past five years in Java and Sumatra in the interests of the oil company. He plans to build a beautiful home on this property within the next four months.

It has been reported that the Richards acreage was sold to a San Francisco party, S. B. Vinson, realtor of North Costa Mesa, sold the Baird house and half acre on Santa Ana road across from the Lambertons, to Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Los Angeles. They have moved the house from the rear of the property to the front and are repairing and remodeling the same, and they will make it their home. Mr. Vinson rented the Ross house on Elden, just off of Del Mar, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Dixons, who were formerly located on the McCoy tract.

'OLD ENGLISH' OPENS WALKER'S TONIGHT

George Arliss is coming in a new creation—"Old English"—a part which he considers the best characterization of his long career. According to "Old English" independence is the most precious of all possessions. Proud and defiant of convention is the rakish old rascal that George Arliss has so adroitly transferred to the Vitaphone screen for Warner Brothers.

"Old English" is, however, very human, and in the hectic last three days of his life he lives in retrospect the eighty odd years of his not too virtuous life. Rouge, though he is, his stubborn fight for what he wants most and his zest for living find a responsive echo in every human heart.

"Old English" opens today at Walker's State with George Arliss starring in the role he made famous on the stage.

A plan was popped into my head. Why should we keep these lovely flowers? They'll only wilt and die. Here comes a little girl and we can make her happy as can be. We'll give her our carnations as she comes a-walking by."

The next thing that the small girl knew, kind Scouty said, "These are for you. Just put them in some water and be sure the stems all touch. I will keep the flowers alive for quite a while and they're a pretty sight." The little girl thanked them and said, "Thank you, very much."

Once more the lads were on their way. The Travel Man said, "Well, today, I think we'll see a bull fight." "Gondy, goody," cried the bunch. They soon were watching quite a sight. Said Clowny, "Gee! This is all right! I'm glad you brought us to this show. It was a happy hunch."

Architects For H. B. Legion Memorial Hall Employed

ADDITION WILL COST $30,000 COUNCIL TOLD

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Nov. 4.—The city council in regular monthly session last night at city hall decided at the request of City Treasurer Joseph Vavra to obtain a security bond to guarantee the city treasurer against loss of bonds and securities deposited by local banks with the treasurer. The securities, posted by the banks as a guarantee of funds, are in custody of the city treasurer. They could be stolen, lost or destroyed and the city treasurer be liable for their restoration. Orange county recently took out similar bonds for the county treasurer to protect securities in his possession. The city of Huntington Beach now has guaranteed securities from banks for over half a million in city funds, deposited in the banks.

Architects Engaged
Schilling and Schilling, Long Beach architects, were engaged to prepare plans for the reconstruction of city auditorium into a memorial hall to the American Legion. The contemplated expenditure will be about $30,000. The architects will be paid six per cent of the cost for their work in preparing the plans and in a supervisory capacity. A standard form of contract as provided by the American Institute of Architects will be used and the council will meet in adjourned session November 17 to consider and adopt the architects' plans and to advertise for bids for the construction work.

There will be a two-story addition to the present auditorium with frontage on Sixth street and a portion of the auditorium to be used by the American Legion free of charge for the existence of the Legion. The Legion and auxiliary of the Legion post here will furnish the new portion of the auditorium, the lobby for public use and the special quarters for use of the Legion and auxiliary. Councilman Chris King put the motion that clinched the auditorium for the Legion and it was seconded by Councilman Bayard Butcher and adopted unanimously. City Clerk C. R. Furr, in answer to a question by Mayor Sam R. Bowen, stated that bids for the street paving had been advertised for and would be opened at the special session of the council on November 17th.

Pier Construction
City Engineer Merwin Rosson reported the completion of the municipal pier repair job and the commencement of actual construction on the pier extension of 500 feet into deep water. He said the pier would not be completed within the specified time of the contract but would be completed by February 1 of 1931. The contractors will at an early session of the council ask for a short extension of time. The city engineer complimented contractors Merritt, Chapman and Scott, on the character of the work done on the pier.

Councilman Bayard Butcher, in charge of the investigation of municipal water, stated that the water company had discontinued the use of one well and was searching for a new location for sinking additional wells. He said tests showed the city water to be now free from unhealthy germs and much improved in quality.

Mayor Bowen continued Councilman Butcher as a special committee of one to carry on the water investigation further, or until such time as the water situation is such as the council can fully approve. The efforts of the water company were commended and Mayor Bowen in discussing the matter referred to a recent report of a special committee of the chamber of commerce which investigated the water situation.

Suit for Beach Front
City Attorney L. W. Blodgett reported in regard to the suit of the city against the Huntington Beach company for title to the beach in front of the city. He stated that the court in San Diego where the suit was transferred on a change of venue, had heard depositions of the company, overruling several and granting one by which the city must amend the complaint to set forth the special and specific uses to which the public had put the beach at various times.

City departmental reports were received and read by the city clerk and ordered filed.

The east side lighting plans, petitioned for recently by east side residents, were taken up and a recommendation from the city engineer was read, recommending the installation of 96 lights on the east side. The matter was referred to the street and park committee for a report and recommendation at the special meeting on November 17.

A petition was read from the Horseshoe Pitchers' association asking for a horseshoe court on a part of Triangle park now being improved, with a sheltered place where checker and card games could be played. This request was referred to the street and parks committee.

Street Barricaded
City Engineer Rosson informed the council that the Huntington Beach company or Standard Oil company or both had barricaded Eleventh street at the entrance of the street to the beach, placing a locked gate across the street. A deed to the city of the street was read to the council by the city clerk.

On motion of Councilman King, seconded by Councilman Elson G. Conrad, the city attorney was instructed to write the Standard Oil company, giving notice to have the barricade removed from the street within five days, or the city would forcibly remove it. The street has been open for many years, the deed bearing a date in the year 1909. The city garbage wagons use the street frequently in cleaning the beach, it was stated, and the city engineer said the Standard Oil had promised to supply the street department with a key to the locked gates.

Tax Assessment
At the suggestion of City Clerk C. R. Furr two employees of the office of the county assessor were authorized to re-assess every residence in the city, about 1400 in number. The work is to be in the form of a survey to readjust assessment values which have not been changed for years. The work is to cost the city not more than $300, it was stipulated.

On motion of Councilman Conrad the city street department was instructed to place slow signs at all dangerous street intersections along Orange avenue for its entire length through the city. This is the avenue most frequently used by oil workers returning from the oil field to their homes in the city. It was on this street that Bruce White, prominent oil worker, was killed in an auto accident Sunday night.

DRAMA TEACHERS CONVENE NOV. 25

FULLERTON, Nov. 4.—Orange county drama teachers will be guests of the Fullerton union high school and junior college drama department at a dinner meeting November 25 on the stage of the new auditorium here, it was announced today by Mrs. Esther C. Litchfield, drama coach of the junior college.

Organization of an Orange county association of drama teachers will be a feature of the meeting, according to Mrs. Litchfield, who pointed out that previously the county teachers have had no organization, being members of the Southern California Drama Teachers' association.

Entertainment at the initial meeting here will be furnished by members of the high school and junior college drama classes. Arrangements for the program and dinner are under the direction of Mrs. Litchfield and Frederic M. Spelley, high school drama coach.

Members Of Club Guests At Party

MIDWAY CITY, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Chester Campbell entertained members of the Owls club and their husbands and a few friends at a Halloween party. Elaborate decorations in the Halloween motif were used by Mrs. Campbell throughout the home and at the card tables and later at the luncheon tables, tally cards and place cards corresponding.

There were four tables of "500" and prize winners were Oril Hare, high for men; Mrs. Edna Day, high for women; George Clough, low for men; Mrs. Laura Smith, low for women. Prizes were given on Halloween games which followed.

A luncheon was served to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parr, Mr. and Mrs. Oril Hare, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Snow, Mrs. D. D. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Day and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Campbell, of the Owls club party and as invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davies, of Midway City, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Smith, of Garden Grove.

$25,000 LEGION HALL ON BAY FRONT ASSURED WITH SALE OF MUNICIPAL LAND BY COUNCIL

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 4.—The proposed $25,000 American Legion hall here was a step nearer realization today, following a meeting of the city council last night at which the mayor and city clerk were authorized by vote of the council to sell to the Newport Harbor Legion post No. 291 the land now occupied by the Legion hut at the foot of Tenth street, for a nominal sum.

City Attorney Roland Thompson stated that a non-profit association had been legally formed by the Harbor post of the Legion and that the contract of sale of the land reserved a right of way for a road between the property and the bay and also had a clause stating that if for any reason the non-profit association is dissolved the property will revert to the city.

The property has a beautiful location at the foot of Tenth street on the bay front, overlooking most of the bay and the hills beyond. The Legion plans to construct there a fine home that can also be used for large dinners and meetings and small conventions. It will have one of the most unique locations of all Legion posts in the state and is expected to become a mecca for many Legionnaires, particularly during the summer months.

The Currie Engineering company, special engineers for the proposed new sewer disposal plant, had plans for the system before the council, which deferred further action until the next meeting, which will be on November 17. This new system will, according to the Currie engineers, be the most up-to-date on the south coast. It will take care of Lido Isle and the rest of the city except Balboa Island and Corona del Mar, which are served by another plant.

City Attorney Thompson advised the council that abatement of an alleged nuisance by the Orange County Oil Refining company, in West Newport, is a matter for those residents of the district who complain of it to take action upon, in his opinion it is not a public nuisance affecting the entire city or a substantial portion of it.

The matter came before the council when a resident of the West Newport section complained of the odors which he said came from the refinery. The refinery has been licensed to do business by the city, and members of the council said last night that the company has promised to abate the odors but never has done so.

The council authorized Thompson to advise the complainants of his opinion. He intimated that if these residents asked for an injunction in the courts it would probably be granted.

City Engineer R. L. Patterson asked for further time to report on the matter of furnishing water for the proposed new golf course north of Corona del Mar. Patterson had a conference on the ground Saturday with Joe Szarinski, who proposes to move to the new location from the old Orange county course across the bay, recently cut up by the new roads to the high school, and representatives of the Irvine company.

Szarinski plans to lease the land from the Irvine company for a long term and install a modern 18-hole grass-green course, and is now trying to arrange for a water supply.

The council granted water to the Service laundry at a 50 per cent reduction from the regular commercial rates. It had given a low rate to Newport Packing company, operating the fish cannery, and the Newport Ice and Cold Storage company, at a former meeting.

Schoolmates Are Guests At Party

TUSTIN, Nov. 4.—A gaily costumed troop of young people invaded the Frank M. Grist home at 690 South B. street Friday afternoon when little Miss Vivian Grist entertained her schoolmates at the liveliest of Halloween events.

Mrs. Grist had many games planned for the young people heightening their charm and interest by the setting afforded by Jack 'o' lanterns, black cats and witches. Ice cream and cake were served each guest.

Sharing Miss Vivian's hospitality were Betty Jane Brooks, Jack Becker, Jack Grist, Dorothy Allen, Elizabeth Campbell, Virginia Pafford, Ruth Johnson, Arthur Whittem, Billy Winterbourne, Lorraine Bolyard, Marjorie Grist and Donald Grist.

PAIN IN YOUR SHOULDER? Use Tysmol for Relief

Knife-like jabs of pain in the vicinity of the shoulder blade are generally due to neuritis, brought on by exposure to draughts or sudden changes of weather. In some cases there is stiffness or soreness in the muscles, making it difficult to raise the arm.

The safest and easiest way to relieve such an attack is to apply a small quantity of Tysmol over the affected area. This soothing, healing preparation is quickly absorbed through the pores and carried to the throbbing, aching peripheral nerves. The pains usually stop at once, and in a very short time the last trace of soreness should disappear.

Tysmol is absolutely harmless—free from dope. Recommended for all forms of nerve pain, whether caused by neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism. Sold by leading druggists. Always on hand at C. S. Kelley Drug Co.—Adv.

FINISH WORK ON GYMNASIUM AND CAFETERIA

NEWPORT HEIGHTS, Nov. 4.—Finishing touches are being put on the gymnasium and shops at the Newport harbor union high school and good progress is being made on the unfinished parts of the main group of buildings, in which school started September 22.

The gymnasium is one of the most modern in Southern California, with accommodations for 1300 spectators and with facilities which will make it possible to have six basketball teams practicing at the same time, two on the main floor and two in each of two subsidiary rooms. It is the intention to use these two extra rooms for basketball and other physical education in rainy weather. Ample shower bath and other equipment are provided.

The cafeteria will accommodate more than 200 at one time and it was stated today that more than half of the students take their lunches there daily, a somewhat larger proportion than in most high school cafeterias, it is said. The cafeteria and home economics departments are under Miss Mildred Terpstra.

Considerable work remains to be done in the auditorium, which will have a full size stage and will hold 1200 spectators when fully equipped. However, this year seats for only half that number will be installed. Just back of the stage will be dressing rooms for both boys and girls.

Yesterday for the first time the girl students of the high school attended a physical education class in the gym with their gym suits on. The class was given by Miss Frances West, dean of girls. One of yesterday's lectures was given by Marc Goodnow, instructor in journalism at the University of Southern California. He and a number of other visitors were shown around the buildings by S. H. Davidson, principal, and the group later had luncheon in the school dining room.

Woman's Club Of Seal Beach Plans Party November 6

SEAL BEACH, Nov. 4.—The Woman's club of this city will sponsor a card party Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the city hall. No admission will be charged and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend. Proceeds from the affair will be placed in the club treasury.

A door prize will be given and prizes for both bridge and "500" will be presented. Mrs. R. L. Padlock is chairman of the card party committee, with Mesdames Morse, Fuller and Lindecke assisting.

BUENA PARK CAFE THIEVES SURPRISED

BUENA PARK, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, proprietors of the Sunshine Inn on North Grand avenue, returned to their place of business at 9 o'clock Sunday night after an absence of three hours and as they threw the lights of their car on the safe, thieves who were busy ransacking the place decided it was time to make a hasty exit by the back door, and in their rush dropped part of the loot on the doorstep. Investigation showed that several packages of cigarettes, some doughnuts and food-stuff and a fur driving coat Mr. Sutherland had used in the east were missing, although $6 in the cash register and some money in a purse lying on a table in an adjoining room were overlooked by the thieves.

L. A. Newman, station agent at the Santa Fe depot, which is across the street from the Sunshine Inn, upon reporting for work Monday morning found that the back door had been badly damaged and the lock broken and although evidence of a prowler ransacking the place was apparent, Mr. Newman could find nothing missing.

The affair is sponsored by the Hollywood Y. M. C. A. association.

SAN CLEMENTE LIGHT SYSTEM STARTED TODAY

SAN CLEMENTE, Nov. 4.—Work of stringing wire for the new ornamental system along the newly paved highway for a distance of 2.3 miles and from El Camino Real to the ocean down Del Mar is under way. Within a few days the first ornamental pole will be erected. The job, part of the Griffith construction contract of $150,000, is being done by John R. Davis company at a cost of $36,367.50.

The job will be completed and ready for acceptance in 30 days. Poles to the number of 174 will be placed along the State highway from the north entrance of the city to a few blocks south of the San Clemente Clinic and Hospital. The poles, of special design, being white with red bases, are being made in Los Angeles.

With the completion of the lighting system San Clemente's $150,000 improvement district will be finished. The paving job has been finished for the past month. The new road will give the Spanish village one of the widest and best lighted strips of state highway in the state, according to W. A. Ayer, city engineer.

Hollywood Trip Planned By 50 Y. Boys Of Anaheim

ANAHEIM, Nov. 4.—About 50 Anaheim boys are expected to go to Hollywood November 15. Twenty reservations have been made with Secretary Jongeward for the trip. They will attend a theater, he served a box lunch at Hollywood high school and see a football game at the coliseum when U. S. C. will play the University of Hawaii.

The affair is sponsored by the Hollywood Y. M. C. A. association.

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

WHEREAS, by a Deed of Trust dated May 2nd, 1930, recorded in Book 380, Page 239, of Official Records of the County of Orange, State of California, to which record reference is hereby made, Viola Mann did grant and convey the property herein after described to the Farmers and Merchants Trust Company of Long Beach, a California corporation, as trustee, to secure, among other things, the payment of certain debt and the note dated May 2nd, 1930, in the amount of $325.00, in favor of Mrs. Martha Scott, and other sums advanced or expended and interest thereon; and

WHEREAS, said Deed of Trust provides that should default be made and the payment of any sum secured thereby or in the performance of any obligation therein mentioned, the owner and holder of said note and the said Trust Company, by said Deed of Trust immediately due and payable and may require the Trustee to sell the property subject thereto; and

WHEREAS, default in the obligation secured by said Deed of Trust has occurred in that the principal of said note and interest due thereon, as provided in said Deed of Trust, have not been paid when due, and there is now due, owing and unpaid upon said note the principal sum of $325.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 10% per annum from May 2nd, 1930, compounded monthly, and all sums advanced or expended and interest as therein provided; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the default aforesaid, the owner and holder of said note and the said Trust, declared on July 30th, 1930, all sums secured by said Deed of Trust immediately due and payable, and the said Trust, by its Board of Directors, on the 31st day of July, 1930, caused notice of said default and of election to cause said Trustee to sell said property in accordance with the provisions of said Deed of Trust to be recorded in Book 403, Page 335 of Official Records of said Orange County, California.

NOTY THEREFORE, notice is hereby given that the Farmers and Merchants Trust Company of Long Beach, by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Deed of Trust, will on the 28th day of November, 1930, at the hour of 12:30 p. m. of said day, at the Broadway entrance of the City Hall, of the City of Long Beach, California, State of California, sell by public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in gold coin of the United States, on the 28th day of November, 1930, at the hour of 12:30 p. m. of said day, at the Broadway entrance of the City Hall, of the City of Long Beach, California, State of California, all the interest conveyed to it by said Deed of Trust, in and to the property situated in Orange County, California, described as follows:

Lots Forty-two (42) and Forty-three (43), in Block "43" of Tract Number Five Hundred Thirty-one (531), Edinger Square (Section 1), City of Santa Ana, as shown on a map recorded in Book 18, pages 2 and 3 of Official Records of said Orange County.

Or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay the total amount of the principal, interest, advances, charges, costs, expenses of sale and compensation of Trustee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Farmers and Merchants Trust Company of Long Beach, has duly authorized this notice, by the signature of its President, attested by its Secretary, who has affixed the corporate seal of Long Beach, California, this 1st day of November, 1930.

EVENING SALUTATION

"The natural man will find his way more readily to the truth than the one who lives in constant terror to the lash of ridicule."
—HETWOOD BROWN, Author.

ALL TOGETHER, NOW!

By the time this paper reaches the readers, it will be almost the hour when the last vote will be in the ballot box, and the election for 1930 will have been decided. In the midst of election campaigns, people are likely to lose their sense of proportion, and are also inclined to believe the finest concerning their candidate and the worst concerning his opponent.

An idle rumor is exploded into a fact and peddled for its influence upon voters. This has always been so, and it probably will always be so. The level-headed, clear-thinking people, however, realize this, and are not stampeded by such political propaganda.

We, of course, have no means of knowing how the election will result. We have never been interested so much in the candidates as we have been in the principles which are typified by the candidates. Where there is no principle involved between candidates, we have not editorially expressed an opinion in regard to them.

But now that the campaign is over, and the votes for the candidates, one way or the other, are to determine the result, may we suggest that it is the time for all people, regardless of whether their candidate is successful or not, to determine to get behind the officials who are elected, and help them be the best officers that it is possible for them to be, and to carry on for the good of all to the highest possible degree.

We believe in majority rule. Whether we agree that the majority is right or not, it is certainly right for the majority to have their way. So to that extent the majority is always right in a democracy, and after an expression has been had, a vote taken, a policy adopted, and candidates elected by a majority, we, in the interest of this great and fine county of Orange and the interest of Santa Ana, want to loyally support the officials in carrying on their work for the county or city.

Let's help them make good. Let us let the world know that we are together after an election. We may differ before; we may have our discussions and our arguments; we may become spirited and appear acrimonious, but after the battle, it is buried, and we are for all of our institutions 100 per cent.

This is the thing that is needed. We should remember at the close of this fight that the election is over, and that each candidate has done his best to win, and his supporters have done their part. They have had their chance, and now we are Santa Anans and Orange county people. We all want the best administration in every department that we can get, and even though we may differ as to who will give it to us, we will support the men who are elected, to the end that they may be aided in that support in making good.

CHILD WELFARE

Several of the conclusions of President Hoover's youth committee which has been studying the welfare of the country's youth and which is to report at the White House child conference in a day or two are made public today. This study group has found that every criminal in the United States costs as much as the welfare influence on the lives of one hundred sixty normal boys.

The committee found that delinquency flourishes in neighborhoods indifferent to the activities of the children.

The report of the commission carries an economy to the realty man who plans his subdivision with parks and playgrounds. He is hailed as a benefactor to boys and girls. Blessings should also be heaped upon the real estate man who makes fathers and mothers dissatisfied with anything less than a real home with a yard for their children. Here in Santa Ana, where practically every street in residence sections is a happy neighborhood for children, we can hardly appreciate some of the situations in the large cities where people actually pen their children up in apartment houses. The New Yorker recently carried a cartoon which brought such a situation out amusingly. A mother is leaning out of the window calling her children in from the street which is so flanked with high apartment houses that not a ray of sunlight penetrates to the street. "Come in, dear," she says, "and take your sunlight." And we see in the background the artificial sun-light machine ready to be turned on the child.

Quiet streets in Santa Ana and yards so little shut off the one from the next that they form one long playground, with here and there a side yard or back yard in which there has been set up some playground equipment, makes this a far finer city for children than is apparent to the casual observer who notes the absence of parks, which, however, we should have in addition. There is a wonderful amount of neighborhood and personal supervision of the children of our city. It is the finest kind because it surrounds every hour of the child's day.

It is probably true of most small cities and towns that there is more solicitude for the child than in the larger cities. It is true because it is the reason for many parents living in a smaller city. One is inclined to believe that there is more interest in the welfare of children in Santa Ana than elsewhere. It is difficult to make such comparison, but it is true that some who have recently arrived in the city have observed more actual sacrificial devotion to the welfare of the children than they observed elsewhere. Maybe it is the fashion everywhere to concentrate on child welfare, an outgrowth of the interest in psychology of a few years ago. It is a new feeling of responsibility for the adults of the future. Psychology of late has emphasized, as it never has been emphasized before, the influence of childhood on the adult. The cause and result relationship between the child and that same child grown up has undoubtedly frightened many parents into careful vigilance over their children. Love would, of course, inspire devotion but love alone doesn't make the parent study the proper handling of the child.

When President Hoover gave his address before bankers in Cleveland recently, it is understood he got lots of credit.

AL CAPONE PROPOSES TERMS

The news dispatches carry a proposal from the leading gangster, Al Capone, of Chicago, to the officials representing the law, setting forth the conditions on which he will cease his "rebellion" against the government.

If there is anything more which could be needed to illustrate the humiliating position which the law enforcement officials are in than this, we do not know it. The impudence of a man who has so organized the crime elements in a great city that he imagines for a moment that there will be a compromise with lawlessness and that he will be permitted to operate one form of law violation in his surrender of the "privilege" by operating other forms of racketeering!

Capone's proposition to the judge, sent by an emissary, we suppose under a white flag of truce, was that he would cease racketeering on the union affairs and similar things if he were permitted the privilege of continuing his racket on beer. It is suggested that he would remove to Florida and continue his operations through "remote control." This proposition aids in bringing out the absurd and ridiculous position in which the agencies of government find themselves in Chicago, and amounts to such a challenge as they, even up to this time, have not yet had. It ought to be a challenge to all the forces of government everywhere. It comes from profiteering from crime in the beginning by officials winking at some form of criminality. It ends with the idea that two governments can exist side by side.

A Bill to Pay

San Diego Sun

Five years ago the abstruse technicalities of criminal law played an expensive trick upon the people of Cook county, Illinois, and yesterday the people paid one more installment of the cost.

Five years ago, a known thug and gangster shot and killed a policeman. He wounded a second police officer. The law caught the gangster, brought him to trial and the court condemned him to life imprisonment. There was no doubt of his guilt, but "irregularities" in the solemn ritual of his trial were affirmed by the state supreme court and the gangster was awarded a new trial. And the law permitted evasion and delay which made him virtually a free man.

Recently this gangster was picked up in one of the periodic police "drives," and an energetic prosecutor reinstated the murder charge against him. The policeman wounded at the time of the murder was again to be the chief witness for the prosecution.

Then yesterday the gangster's pals drove a "pay-off wagon" alongside a street car in which this policeman was riding, and dozens of passengers were endangered when the gunmen pumped lead. The policeman was wounded again. The passengers were unhurt. But from now until the day this case is decided—and perhaps long after that—hundreds of Chicago citizens will be in momentary danger of death, merely because the law that is on their side is not so strong as the murderous anarchy that is on the side of the gangsters.

The legalistic tricks that saved a murderer's life, five years ago, may yet be paid for by the lives of some of the citizens who tolerated those tricks.

Dummy Books For Libraries

New York Times

For most Americans dummy books are a theatrical property that appear in stage sets showing book-lined libraries or in furniture shops where they gave blatantly new bookcases a comfortable, well-filled look. In England not so long ago, a contributor to The London Morning Post reports, they were commonly used for "masking a doorway or an alcove" in private homes.

The cachet of respectability was given to them by the fact that the British Museum Reading Room, with plenty of real books about, set the example. In sedate old Victorian houses, long series of leather-bound sets of standard authors adorned library shelves.

Sometimes the titles given were patently bogus and facetious. "The last set that I remember seeing was in the sitting room of the old Vicarage at Grantchester at the time when Rupert Brooke lived there. One title was 'Boyle on Steam'; and another 'Tadpoles, or Tales Out of My Own Head.'"

It is surprising that some enterprising firm has not offered to sell dummy books with the season's latest titles. Then instead of merely having his literary diet selected for him by a book club, the busy modern could have his shelves lined with best-sellers without the slightest obligation to read them. And book-borrowers would cease to be a nuisance.

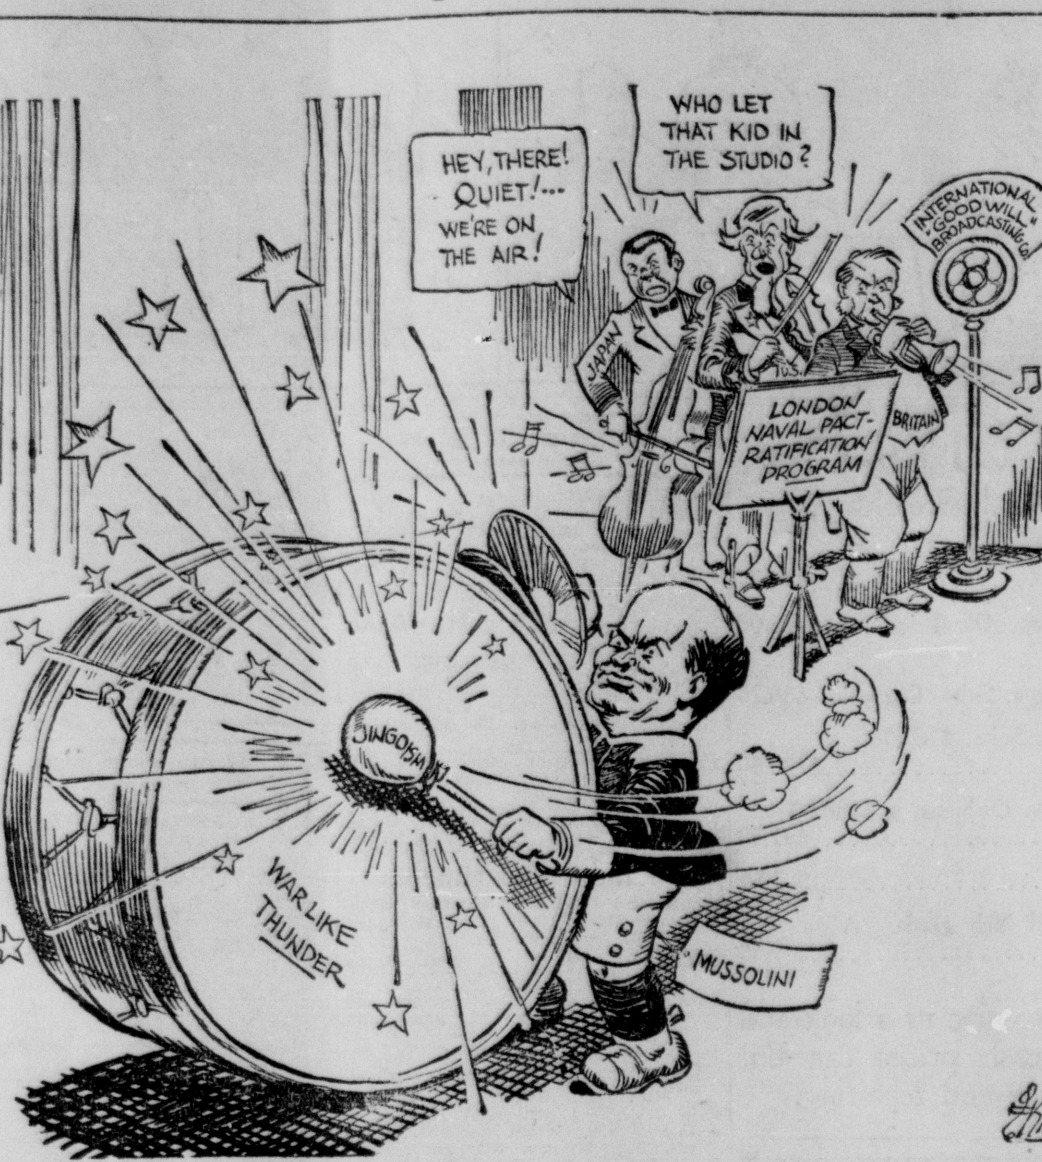

Victory For Peace

Oakland Tribune

A cheerful item for those who like to see the world turn to ways of peace comes from Amarillo, Texas. There lives Gene Howe, the fiery editor who, not so long since, was engaged in a duel with Mary Garden. Official statements, sizing and pointed, were issued at 12-hour intervals so long as Gene and Mary quarreled and before it was over Mary had crossed Texas off the map and Gene had declared the commonwealth rejoiced because she was never to sing there again. Indeed it was a terrible war.

But now comes word Mary Garden has accepted an invitation to take lunch at the Gene Howe bungalow, though Mary has it she will have tea at his villa, and the elite of Amarillo, in newly-ordered frock coats will be present. So Mary puts Texas back on the map, the quarreling is forgotten and sweet peace is restored. If Zane Grey will only reinstate the State of Arizona, off his lists because it would not allow him to shoot some filibustering pigs, it will be a great month for art and the pacifists.

Time To Pick Up His Drum and Beat It!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE NEW GARTER

In the earliest days of the race, I am told, Men were grasping and greedy at heart; Their hunger for riches were avid and bold And graft had a pretty fair start. When the strong wanted bear skins, or deer meat or grain They took what they needed by force And their right to this high-handed method of gain Seemed a time-honored matter of course.

The rude robber barons who came by and by. In their power supreme and secure, Resorted to graft to obtain their supply Of money and food from the poor. They had little wit, and they used no finesse But their nerve was serene and undaunted, And by using all possible modes of duress They managed to get what they wanted.

When nations were founded and statutes were made Graft still was a flourishing custom And the tribute the people unwillingly paid Was so great that it threatened to bust 'em. Still they wore a brave smile, and when fuel ran low The burned up their floor boards and rafters, For their bitter experience taught 'em to know How hard were the fists of the grafters.

We are dwelling today in a civilized age, The grafter more crafty has grown, No sinister war on the world does he wage As he did in the times that have flown. But he goes in pursuit of a far greater loot, He gathers more riches each year, For he uses his brains in amassing his gains Instead of a club or a spear!

Election Day Economics

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and
WADDILL CATCHINGS

We have just read a letter from a former Secretary of War in which he says: "For the last year, jobs have seemed to me so much more important than drinks that I have been only mildly stirred by the flurry going on around the Eighteenth Amendment."

We agree. In the present crisis it is little short of a national calamity that prohibition is allowed to distract attention from unemployment.

No man who has seen his savings vanish and his children suffer, through three months of weary hunting for a job, can possibly believe that prohibition is, at this moment, the paramount political issue.

A few politicians, no doubt, honestly cling to that notion. But for the most part prohibition is a red herring drawn across the main trail. It diverts voters into a tortuous by-path which, for the immediate future, leads nowhere. And that is the purpose for which the red herring is used.

We are not here taking sides for or against prohibition. We are merely pointing out that there is such fundamental disagreement on that subject that the issue will not be settled today, no matter who is elected.

On the issue of unemployment, however, there is fundamental agreement. Both dries and wets agree that there are enough machines, materials, money, and unsatisfied wants to provide a job for every man who wants one. Both dries and wets agree that the economic losses connected with the liquor traffic are small, compared with the ten billions of real wealth which have been lost, already, in this depression.

Here is a problem which can be solved. It is a political issue. No party has presented an adequate solution.

Nobody tried to make a partisan political issue out of the war against Germany. Nobody should try such tactics in the war against unemployment.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

Rural America Speaks

It was recently my privilege to participate in the National Conference of the Country Life Association. From the outset this Conference captured my enthusiasm because it was animated by a spirit that sees in the direction and development of Rural America something beyond a mere scramble for loaves and fishes, even if at the moment the rural bread-box may be low on loaves and the rural fish-catch something less than liberal.

In its consideration of the nature and needs of Rural America, this Conference concerned itself with values that lie beneath and beyond economics, although none of its readers are naive enough to suppose that much headway can be made in the building of a worthy and workable rural culture apart from a statesmanlike handling of the baldly material factors that make and unmake farm prosperity.

The spiritual values of rural life do not operate in a vacuum, but are closely interlocked with the stubborn factors of crops and cash returns.

The problems of rural culture and the problems of rural economics are wedded, and let no man think he can put them asunder. Save for the occasional saint or seer, it is idle to talk culture to the man who is out of cash.

"If any man have two loaves of bread," said Mohammed, "let him trade one for a narcissus. The bread is nourishment for the body, but the narcissus is nourishment for the soul."

You will notice, however, that Mohammed's man had two loaves of bread before he was advised to invest one loaf in the quest of beauty.

Using the terms in a broadly symbolic way, we may say that the dual enterprise of rural leadership is the quest of bread and the quest of beauty.

The goal of rural leadership is to set going forces that shall ultimately guarantee to the men and women and children of Rural America a loaf of bread and a narcissus.

To put it more badly, we must both enlarge farm profit and enrich farm life, and five years of more or less intimate contact with the problems that press insistently upon the farmers of one American state have convinced me that we shall not go far toward enriching farm life until we have enlarged farm profits.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THIS EATING

There are many complaints about the children who will not eat. "My child refuses to eat cereal or any of the things that are good for him."

O, that phrase, "good for him." It is only human to resent doing things for one's good. The minute we understand that somebody is trying to do us good we are determined to see that they do nothing of the sort. Nobody shall do good unto us if we can help it. But we love to do what is for our pleasure. Why not?

The old notion that if a child enjoyed something, it was bad for him should be laid low by this time. It is rather safe to conclude that if a child is doing makes him happy it is also doing him good. If he likes to eat a certain dish allow him to do so in moderation, providing it is not something that nobody should eat, say cabbage that has been boiled all day until it smells to heaven and is as brown as your boot. Nobody ought to be allowed to eat such stuff, not even if it makes him happy for the time being. Illness is sure to follow.

But it is only adults who have such tastes. Children like young vegetables that have been cooked in their own juice and have retained all their original color and flavor. They like green things like the hearts of lettuce; red things like tomatoes; gorgeous things like his brown and gold oranges and purple plums and amber grapes. And all of them will do their good, and make them very happy.

A good sauce for appetite is hunger. I believe that most of our complaining children are over-fed. The remainder of them are served so unattractively that they rebel. So would we under the same circumstance. How would you like to eat the stuff, with milk, dry, gray, sticky stuff, with milk, dry, after day, Sunday and Christmas included? Could you eat spinach every day for a year? Toast every teatime, with prunes? Many a complaining child has been served just that way and still his grieving mother sighs, "He won't eat."

A healthy child is hungry three times a day and often. If you serve him just enough, if you vary the menu and serve it attractively, the child will not turn from it. Why should a child eat the same cereal every day? Why not a variety? And why not skip it occasionally so that he will not feel that it threatens all his days? Why spinach daily? Try carrots and beans and tomatoes and okra and peas and lettuce and potatoes and onions—search the market for attractive food and study how to cook it and how to serve it. It is possible to serve a dish of potatoes, or beans, so that the most jaded palate cannot refuse them.

Cooking is an art. It begins with marketing. Then the taste of the children must be considered. Flavor, color, arrangement must be carefully thought out. Feed a child this way, give him nothing between meals, and he will eat. If he is a tiny child whose stomach is filled when he drinks a glass of milk, feed him five times a day instead of three, a little each time. Eating ought to be delightful. Take it for granted and it is.

RODIN'S BIRTH

On Nov. 4, 1840, Auguste Rodin, a French sculptor, and one of the greatest of all times, was born in Paris of a poor family.

His only general education was at a school maintained by his uncle in Beauvais. At 14 he entered a school for decorative art in Paris and later, studying under Barye, he began to exhibit in the salon. First of his works to attract attention was a head called "Broken Nose." Though he modeled this at 22, critics regard it as one of the most powerful of his works.

After service in the army in the Franco-Prussian War, Rodin gained considerable attention by his statue the "Age of Bronze." He later received the commission for the bronze door of the Museum of Decorative Arts. The door was never finished but the figures and groups Rodin prepared for it are among his best works. Among them are "The Thinker" and "Adam and Eve." "Rodin's art," wrote a critic, "is the culmination of the naturalistic sculpture of the nineteenth century, and yet in knowledge of anatomy and profound mastery of technique he stands with Michelangelo."

14 Years Ago Today

NOVEMBER 4, 1916

One of the smart social affairs of the week was the 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday when Mrs. J. I. Clark and Mrs. W. E. Winslow were joint hostesses at the latter's home on Bush street.

City Marshal Jernigan was down at his office this morning for the first time in about two weeks, as he has been confined to his home with an illness.

Judge Z. B. West, Prof. J. A. Cranston, District Attorney L. A. West and Judge W. H. Thomas will speak on California Dry in the First Baptist church Sunday evening.

F. B. Browning, C. E. Utt, A. H. Lyon, B. H. Sharpless and W. H. Flippin were re-elected as board of directors of the Tustin Lemon association at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon.
